Special song featured at Fleck-Heiman vows

A special song "His Love Is Ours" was featured at the Nov. 30 wedding of Donna Mae Heiman and Norman Lawrence Fleck.

The song was composed and written for the occasion by the bride's cousin, Marilyn Heiman.

The couple exchanged vows at Pleasant Home Baptist Church with the Rev. James Lenington performing the candlelight, double ring ceremony.

Tom Payne was organist and soloist. Payne was accompanied at the piano by Marilyn Heiman. He also sang "Sunrise, Sunset" and "The Wedding Song."

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Heiman, Rt. 1, Box 557, Boring. She is a first grade teacher at Damascus School. She was graduated from Gresham High School in 1968 and from Oregon College of Education in 1972.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Messner, Portland. He is a 1965 graduate of Benson Polytechnic. He also attended Portland State University and works for Carter Rice Papers, Portland.

The bride wore a gown of sheer organza with high-rise waistline, flounced hem and long bishop sleeves. The bodice and cuffs were trimmed with Venise lace and pull-through satin ribbon.

She had a Juliet cap and Venise lace-edged fingertip mantilla with blusher veil. She carried pink and burgundy baby roses with white stephanotis and baby's-breath. Juanita Heiman, Gresham, was her cousin's honor attendant.

She wore a long-sleeved burgundy crepe gown with a pink flower inset on the bodice. She carried a nosegay of pink and burgundy miniature roses.

Dressed like the honor attendants was bridesmaid Marilyn Heiman and candlelighter Pamela Heiman, the bride's sister-in-law.

Len Simmons, Portland, was best man.

The bride's brother, Larry Heiman, Gresham, ushered. Assisting at the church reception for approximately 225 guests were Ruth Heiman, Mrs. Walter Heiman, Mrs.

Bull Run 4-H News

BY LORI MARSH

The Bull Run Rustlers second meeting was called to order by Sheldon Simonis. We had the annual initiation for our five new members.

Records were passed and we set goals that we are going to meet during this club year. Then we played a game and sang some Christmas songs. We had refreshments and the meeting was adjourned at 8:30.

Orient teachers exchange vows

Marianne Willey chose shades of pink for the colors in her wedding to Michael Lewis Hartman.

The couple was married Dec. 1 at St. Jude's Monastery, Sandy. The single ring ceremony was performed by Father Rene of the Society of St. Paul.

The new Mrs. Hartman is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Oakes. Her husband is the son of Capt. and Mrs. Irvin S. Hartman, Rt. 2, Box 626, Sandy.

The new Mrs. Hartman wore a floor-length, deep pink polyester gown with long, deep pink chiffon sleeves. The V-neckline was trimmed in deep pink chiffon ruffles. Her deep pink floor-length veil was held by a pearl tiara. She carried a nosegay of flowered streamers of pink, red and white.

Bridgette Stout, 19903 NE Halsey, was honor attendant. She was gown in deep cranberry red. Her floor-length velvet gown was fashioned with long sleeves. She carried a nosegay in the wedding colors.

Christopher Hartman, San Diego, Calif., was his brother's best man.

Ushers were Alan Stout, 19903 NE Halsey, and Pete White, 25 NE 19th Ave.

The couple greeted approximately 75 guests at a champagne reception at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Hartman.

Assisting were Judy White; Mrs. Lee McCutcheon and

Susan Gutschow, the new Mrs. Hartman's cousins; Mrs. Kenneth Gardiner; Mrs. Sue Willey; and Elizabeth Chandler, the bridegroom's niece.

The new Mrs. Hartman's daughters, Tami and Juli Willey, were in charge of gifts. Lisa Willey took care of the guest book.

The couple is at home in Gresham.

The new Mrs. Hartman is a first grade teacher in the Orient School District where her husband is a fifth grade teacher.

She received her BA in education at Western Washington College and has done graduate study at Eastern Washington College.

Hartman earned his BS degree from the Naval Academy, Annapolis, in 1959. He received an M.S. degree in education from Portland State University in 1972.

Awards given

Mike Nicholson was named fireman of the year and Gary Connelly was named officer of the year by the Sandy Fire Department at a Sandy Volunteer Fireman's dinner on Friday evening at the Odd-fellow's Hall in Sandy.

The awards are given annually, according to Sandy Fire Chief Bob Rathke.

Bridal workshop Jan. 6

Newest looks in wedding fashions will be viewed at a bridal workshop at 2 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 6, at Rockwood Discount Fabrics.

The look is lacy, according to Discount Fabrics home economist Yvonne Risely.

"You'll also see more color—blue, yellow and pink—are popular with the bride," she said.

The workshop will include

Firemen answer calls

The Sandy Fire Department answered a call for a five car accident on Highway 26 Friday evening.

Only one driver was involved in the accident, according to Sandy Fire Chief Bob Rathke. The driver's car struck two parked cars, according to Rathke, pushing one over the bank and on top of two other cars.

The fire department also handled two first aid calls during the week and a minor chimney fire at 300 E. Hood Street.

Speakers stolen

A tape deck, speakers and ten gallons of gasoline were reported taken from a car belonging to Phillip Crawford, Gresham, while parked at 1740 SE 162nd Ave., Saturday evening, according to sheriff's reports.

Value was placed at $143.
