

Brightwood girl joins new living program

Southern Oregon College student Sandy Strong of Brightwood has become a participant this academic year in a newly launched music residence hall program on the college campus.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Strong of Brightwood and is one of numerous music students who have been sharing a newly organized special-interest dormitory, Diamond Hall, reserved for students who are majoring in music or who have a strong interest in music. The special residence hall supplements the resources of SOC's department of music by providing the dormitory students with such facilities as piano and ensemble group practice rooms available 24 hours a day. The specialized hall also provides students with the opportunity of meeting with performing musicians and faculty members on the campus in an informal setting. The music residence hall is one of several special-interest dormitories placed in operation on the SOC campus this academic year. Others include those for students with special interest in science and mathematics, business, and foreign languages. Some 65,000 American tourists visited Russia in 1972, but only 300 Soviet citizens were allowed by their government to visit the United States.

Tri-County group meets

Tri-County New Politics will hold a meeting today at 8 p.m. in the Community Room of the Far West Federal Savings Building in Lake Grove. Two speakers, Stevie Remington, executive secretary of the Oregon ACLU and Don Jones, chief of police in Milwaukie, will discuss CRISS (Columbia Region Information Sharing System). At issue will be how the use of these files can provide better law enforcement for the tri-county area without invading personal privacy. The discussion will be informal and there will be time to question the speakers. Coffee will be served and all interested persons are cordially invited to attend. The world's three most expensive cities are in Japan: Tokyo, Osaka and Kobe.
