

An invitation to mobile home owners in Clackamas County

The Clackamas County Planning Commission has scheduled a series of informational meetings dealing with a proposed new county ordinance which may affect your property rights.

These meetings are as follows:

Friday, Nov. 22, - Sandy High School 7 p.m.

We urge Clackamas County mobile home owners to attend the meeting in their respective communities to present arguments to protect their land use rights now and in the future.

Representatives of the county planning commission and staff, mobile home industry and state government spokesmen will discuss and answer questions regarding the proposed ordinance.
