DEQ also operates a permanent vehicle test site at 5734 E. Burnside, open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays, Saturdays until 8 p.m. and Sundays until 7 p.m.

Wedding stories should be submitted within one month of the ceremony.

Drop reported in county building permits

Building permits were down in Clackamas County in September, 1974, compared to September, 1973, the University of Oregon Bureau of Business and Economic Research has reported.

In September, 1974, the total was $3,843,368 compared to $4,140,190 in the same month the year before.

Building permits from 150 identical reporting centers in Oregon totaled $66,016,369 in September, 1974. This was 16.3 per cent higher than the total in September, 1973.

In September, 1974, $24,419,572 was for 1,053 new dwelling units, $31,546,073 for new nonresidential construction, and $10,050,724 was for additions, alterations, and repairs to existing structures.

For the same month last year, the $56,747,489 total was composed of $31,396,789 for 1,880 new dwelling units, $18,353,647 for new nonresidential construction, and $6,997,053 for additions, alterations, and repairs to existing structures.

UGN drive exceeds goal

United Good Neighbors exceeded its 1974 goal with a final total of $7,784,805 as the campaign ended Thursday.

Campaign Chairman William H. Hunt, in an emotion-charged farewell, told a Victory Dinner crowd Thursday night that the fund drive "has been the greatest experience in my life." Hunt retired in July as chairman of the board Louisiana Pacific.

"Visiting these agencies that we raise money for and seeing the good work they do, seeing a little baby being helped, has made me work as hard as I ever have in my life," said Hunt.

He was aided by over 22,000 volunteers this year.

According to Mrs. Cheryl Darr, Fairway Ave., Wemme, a key UGN volunteer, UGN's Neighborhood Division, which reached 97.7 per cent of its goal, raised $133 in the Sandy-Hoodland area. Last year the total here was $237.

Through this one campaign each fall, 89 human service agencies are funded. Last year they helped over 300,000 people in Clackamas, Washington, Multnomah and Clark Counties.

Barlow Trail educators informed Gun stolen on all-year school

Mrs. Muriel McCoy and Mrs. Helen Sulzbach were hostesses at the McCoy home for the regular meeting of the Barlow Trail Unit of Retired Educators, Saturday, Nov. 16.

Mrs. Sutherland, president, conducted the meeting for the 20 members who attended. Mrs. Elinor Hill of the Gresham Elementary School gave a report on the year-round schools.

The next meeting of the Retired Educators will be Thursday, Jan. 16, at the home of Dorothy Schrum.

Donald W. Martin, 815 SE 223rd Ave., reported Nov. 9 that a revolver and gun belt valued at $112 had been stolen from his residence.

Bus service offered skiers

Bus service from the greater Portland area will include stops in the Sandy-Boring-Hoodland area on ski runs this year.

Besides ensuring snow enthusiasts a trip to the mountain, the bus service is provided to alleviate the crush of individual automobiles on ski areas, help save tax dollars now spent on snowplowing, and to help preserve the mountain environment as well as gas and oil.

The state spent nearly $60,000 last year plowing roads and parking lots in ski areas, according to Ron Thompson, recreation assistant with the ZigZag Ranger District.

This year the state will trim its snowplow work around ski resorts. Also, due to declining revenue and rising costs, the State Highway Department will not be sanding the road from Highway 26 to Timberline.

Tri-Met run No. 4 to the mountain will drive into Damascus at 7:45 a.m., boom into Boring at 8 a.m., and stop by Sandy at 8 p.m. to deliver skiers to Ski Bowl by 8:45 a.m. and Timberline around 9 a.m.

A round trip fare from Boring or Sandy will cost $2., according to the Tri-Met ticket fee scale.

Persons wishing to use the ski-bus should call the Tri-Met marketing Dept. (233-8373) prior to Friday noons to reserve a seat on the route. The potential bus boarder should indicate which day he will be riding and where he will meet the bus. The person's name is then entered on a reservation chart similar to airline seating charts.

Exact fare is paid upon boarding the bus.

Additional bus service to Timberline Lodge will be offered all during the week. The Timberline bus is operated by RLK Co. and is joined by Greyline on weekends. Buses depart the Huckleberry Inn and pick up passengers at Summit on their way to Timberline Lodge.

Tri-Met ridership increases

Tri-Met General Manager Tom S. King reports that earnings for October, 1974, are up 15 per cent over October, 1973.

Compared to October, 1970, the first month Tri-Met took over operation of both Rose City Transit and the suburban Blue Lines, approximate passenger earnings are up 29.5 per cent.

"Our five-year goal of increasing ridership 100 per cent by 1979 seems entirely reasonable in the light of this 29.5 per cent increase in the past five years," said King.

"First we had to turn around a 20-year pattern of declining bus patronage. Accomplishing this, we increased our service so that it is more and more convenient and accessible. It seems that our efforts are beginning to show results."

Amateur, a word akin to amorous, describes one playing for the love of the game rather than pay.
