PROPOSAL TO BE CONSIDERED: (PROPOSAL NO. W-20)

Formation of the "Brookwood" Community Water System.

The system consists of an existing distribution system, a 12,000 gal. reservoir and an 8 GPM well. A new well is proposed which would be connected to the storage reservoir by 35 ft. of 4 inch line.

The system is designed to serve the Brookwood Subdivision approximately 1/4 mile south of Welches in the Hoodland corridor.

Mobile home show due in Portland

The largest display of mobile homes ever held on the West Coast will await show-goers to the 1975 Portland Mobile Home Show. The exhibit halls of the Memorial Coliseum will be filled with over 50 elegant mobile homes for the five-day show, Wednesday, Feb. 19 through Sunday, Feb. 23.

The size of the Portland show indicates the public's continually growing interest in mobile home housing, according to show chairman, Shorty Diederich. Much of this interest is due to the public's awareness to the economy and practicality of mobile living, he said.

DeMolay sets breakfast

Gresham DeMolay will present its annual breakfast Sunday, Feb. 15. Ham, eggs, hash browns, juice and coffee will be served. The breakfast will be held at Gresham Masonic Temple, 58 W. Powell, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

luxurious mobile estates. A new design concept within the industry will be on display... a Double Tip... a 8 x 35 foot unit, with two 4 x 8 foot tip-outs for added room.

All models on display will stress the importance of superior construction, with such features as insulated glass windows, and in some units basement-style heating systems.

Retarded citizens group sets meet

The Clackamas County Association for Retarded Citizens will hold its annual meeting on Sunday, Feb. 23 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Far West Federal Savings office in the Oregon City Shopping Center.

Members will vote on proposed by-law changes, officers will be elected and certificates of appreciation will be presented to individuals and organizations in recognition of their service on behalf of the retarded.

Walter Fuhrer, executive director of the Multnomah-Clackamas County Association for Retarded Citizens, will install the newly elected board members.
