

GOLDEN AGE CLUB

In spite of vacations and other summer activities the Golden Age Club was well attended at its bimonthly potluck and meeting last Thursday at the Sandy Senior Center. There were 71 present.

Presiding at the business meeting, Maude Johnson, called for her committee reports.

Guests introduced by Johnie Fredmore, membership chairman, included Tami Lyon of Portland; Bill and Grace Thomas, guests of the MacDonalds; Ruth Baumbach; Edward and Helen Emmett, Juanita Dunn, members of the Gresham Senior Citizens; Jennie May McCommet of San Diego; Jay Faust of Colton; Howard and Sara Berger; Melvin and Edna Haneberg.

Dick Halvorson, Sandy Senior Center director, announced the Defensive Driving class scheduled for Sept. 22-23. This is sponsored by the American Association of Retired Persons, the National Retired Teachers Association and the Sandy Senior Center. More information will be found in the monthly Senior Center newsletter and today's Post.

He also announced that a pressure cooker is available for canning and that a sewing machine was given to the Center by the family of the late Minnie Reed.

Clyde Sutherland reported the committee working on the new Senior Citizen directory has it nearly completed.

For the program Lloyd Dunn, a former resident of the Kelo area, presented slides and told of the life in the Philippines where he was employed by the Navy as a training superintendent for 17 years. He told of the beauty of the Philippines which consist of a chain of 7,000 islands, their underdevelopment and of their 40 million inhabitants.

Dunn is a 1926 Sandy High School graduate and enjoyed renewing his acquaintance with many of his former classmates. Mrs. Helen Emmett, formerly Miss McCormick, was one of his high school teachers.

Oregon State Fair features entertainment variety

What's cheaper than going to a movie — and lasts six times as long?

A day at the 1975 Oregon State Fair.

Singing stars, swimming teams, a circus, miniature horses—all are part of this year's vast entertainment lineup at the Fair.

According to fair manager Lillie Ward, "The 1975 Fair really is the entertainment bargain of the year."

Fairgoers can enjoy the following entertainment:

Aquashows in the "Oregon

Ocean," a 175,000 gallon water tank, echoing the Fair's "Salute to the Sea: Neptune's Harvest" theme. The daily shows include synchronized swimming, water polo, scuba diving, kayak demonstrations, radio-controlled boats, and more.

Ma-Ho-Pin, swaypole dancer. Billed as the "world's greatest lady aerialist", the Florida daredevil will perform daily at heights up to 80 feet, climaxing her act with a 50-mile-per-hour "Slide for Life".

The Puffets of Hank Higgins. A multimedia show including special marionettes will be presented thrice daily by Higgins and his associates in the Animal Village Theatre.

The All-Oregon Talent Show. Approximately 80 musical and variety acts chosen through statewide auditions will be slated during eight shows at the new Friendship Square Stage.

The entertainment above can all be had for the price of grounds admission. But for a bit more, these can be enjoyed:

Grandstand shows with top name stars. Scheduled are The Bobby Goldsboro Show, featuring comedian Paul Lennon (Aug. 23, 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.); KWJJ presents The Johnny Cash Show, with June Carter, and the Cash Daughters (Aug. 24, 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.).

The B.J. Thomas Show, also starring Johnny Rivers and featuring Hank Thompson and his Brazos Valley Boys (Aug. 30, 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.).

Drum Corps West Championship Finals, with junior drum and bugle corps from all over the West (Aug. 31, 7:30 p.m.); and Seals and Crofts in Concert, with Walter Heath (Sept. 1, 7:30 p.m.). World Championship RCA Rodeo and All-American Horse Show. Dates and times are 1:30 p.m. Aug. 23, 24, 26, 27, 30, 31, and 7:30 p.m. Aug. 23-31.

Entertaining at performances Aug. 23-27 will be Jerry Olson's Roman Riding Act. Appearing Aug. 28-31 will be Montie Montana, Sr., "World's Foremost Trick Rider and Roper."

Rodeo clown-bullfighter George Doak will be on hand at all 15 performances. Horse racing. The sport will occupy the Lone Oak Track daily, with 11 races each day—including thoroughbreds, quarterhorses, and appaloosas.

Big John Strong's Mini-Circus. This new attraction will feature daily elephant rides, clowns, aerial acts, a juggler, trapeze, animal acts, leopard and more.

S.J.M. Fiesta carnival. Once again S.J.M. Fiesta Shows provide over $6 million worth of rides and games.

Ticket prices for all shows can be obtained by calling the fair at 378-FAIR.
