Wayne A. Scott

A memorial service for Wayne A. Scott, 77, will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Community Presbyterian Church of Sandy.

Scott died Dec. 29 at the Veterans Hospital in Portland and was buried in the Crystal Lake Cemetery, Friday, in Corvallis.

He was a member of the National Guard and served overseas in World War I for two years when he received a Purple Heart, Silver Star and two French medals. He served in the Coast Guard Reserve during World War II.

He was employed with auto dealers for 25 years. In 1946 he moved to Sandy and was parts manager for Beeson Chevrolet and later for Richardson Chevrolet until he retired in 1960. He married Dorothy Chipman in Vancouver, Wash., on Jan. 9, 1922.

Survivors include his wife, two nieces and a cousin.

Clayton Hoffmeister

James Hoffmeister

Clayton D. and James C. Hoffmeister died Jan. 3 from injuries suffered in an auto accident in the Sandy area.

Clayton was 14 and a freshman at Sandy High School. James was 15 and a sophomore at Sandy.

Surviving James are: his parents, James and Caryl, and Beverly Hoffmeister; his brother, Cory W.; sisters, Theresa G. Curtis and Christine Kilminster, both of Portland; grandparent, Hetzel Colt; and great-grandmother, Minna Colt, Boring.

Surviving Clayton are: his parents, James and Caryl Hoffmeister; his brother, Cory; sisters, Christine Kilminster and Theresa Curtis, both of Portland; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoffmeister, Boring and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stokes, Portland.

Services were Tuesday at Bateman Funeral Chapel, Gresham, followed by private vault interment at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Jesse Radford

Jesse Radford, Vancouver, Wash., died at the Veterans Hospital in Vancouver, Jan. 3. He was 84.

Born in Kearney, Neb., he moved west with his family as an infant. They settled in the Lusted area.

The home the family built still stands as well as the orchard they planted.

Radford attended Lusted and Cottrell schools. He worked on the farm and logged in the Bull Run and Sandy areas. His family later moved to Dodge Park.

In 1917 Radford enlisted in the Army. During his tour of duty he suffered a disability.

After returning home, he married Elva Mildred Smith on May 2, 1920.

The couple moved to Eastern Oregon then 11 years later moved to Mabery near Boring. In 1972 they moved to Hazel Dell, Wash.

Radford enjoyed fishing and hunting and was an avid naturalist. He was instrumental in getting his church and Sunday school established in Sandy. He was active on several school boards.

Radford was a member of the Hazel Dell Seventh-Day Adventist Church and the Disabled American Veterans.

Survivors include: his wife; four sons, Gene and Wendel, both of Vernonia, Westley, Tacoma, Wash., and Louis, Boring; four daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Claymeir, Maupin, Mrs. Luella Staggs, Boring, Mrs. Marie DelGrosso, Brush Prairie, Wash., and Mrs. Betty Myers, Battle Ground, Wash.; 12 grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; and two brothers, Homer, Myrtle Creek and Walter, Sandy. Services were Jan. 7 in the chapel of Carroll Funeral Home, Gresham, followed by interment at Cliffside Cemetery, Sandy.

Glenn Heacock

Funeral services for Glenn M. (Razor) Heacock, 63, of 2925 SE 170th Ave., were held Friday at Bateman Funeral Chapel.

Private vault interment was at Willamette National Cemetery.

Heacock was born in Tekoa, Wash., and died in a Portland hospital Dec. 30.

He was educated in Washington and Sandy schools and had lived in Portland for 46 years. He worked as a longshoreman for 26 years, retiring two years ago.

He was a veteran of World War II and a member of International Longshoremen's Union Local 8.

He married Esther Woodrum Feb. 23, 1960. She survives him.

Other survivors are: his children, Shirley Kellogg and Donald Heacock, Portland; mother, Mrs. Ruby Mosier, Port Angeles, Wash.; sisters, Jacque Mansfield, Seattle, and Wilma Madison, Port Angeles.

Merle Swearingen

Merle Ray Swearingen, 74, of 427 NE Liberty St., Gresham, died in a local hospital Dec. 30.

He was born in Barnard, Miss., and had lived in the Gresham area since 1933.

He worked for Portland General Electric as a flume foreman at Bull Run from 1945 until retiring 12 years ago. He also was a berry farmer for more than 40 years.

He is survived by his children, Elizabeth McGinley and Paul McGinley, both of Portland, Mrs. Gene Arthur, Winston, and William McGinley, Klamath Falls; a sister, Mrs. Edwin Troyer, Gresham; and one grandchild.

Requiem mass was offered Saturday at St. Henry Catholic Church with vault interment at Forest Lawn Cemetery. Recitation of the rosary was at Bateman Funeral Chapel Friday.

Kenneth Graves

Services for Kenneth B. Graves, Boring, were Monday at Bateman Funeral Chapel, Gresham.

Born in Marysville, Mo., he died at his home Jan. 2 at the age of 70.

Graves moved from Missouri to Woodland, Wash. in 1918. He worked as a logger prior to entering the armed services.

After his discharge, he worked in a variety of fields, including the motel and office machine businesses. For over 30 years he operated his own repair shop in Roseburg.

In 1959 Graves moved to Gresham and worked for various office firms until his retirement in 1973.

He married Lotus Brandon on April 17, 1942 in Woodland. She died in 1965.

Survivors include: a son, Ronald V., Beaverton; a daughter, Mrs. Dennis (Susan) Windsor, Boring; a sister, Geneva Heryford, Woodland; and three grandchildren.

Vault interment was at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

MR. AND MRS. GARTH WAYNE DUNCAN
(Denise Eva Hanken)

Former resident repeats vows

Denise Eva Hanken and Garth Wayne Duncan were united in marriage Dec. 20 at the Brush Prairie Baptist Church in Vancouver, Wash.

The groom and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duncan, are former Sandy residents, now of Vancouver.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David K. Hanken of Ridgefield, Wash.

She chose a gown of empire bodice with lace overlay, featuring a wide band of lace extending down the front. She carried a nosegay of red and white rosebuds with baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Cheryl Campbell. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. James Cole and Mrs. David Frew, sisters of the bride. Junior attendant and candle lighter was Kim Lamb.

They have named the baby Beth Adriane. She weighed 6 lb. 7 oz. She joins a brother, Mark, 7.

Grandparents are Mrs. Frieda Anderegg, Gresham and Mrs. Gladys Tull, Portland, and Gerald Tull, Sandy.

Wilbur Atkinson, Salina, Kan., is the baby's great-grandfather.

Sandy school news

Parrot visits school

FOURTH GRADE
Mrs. Beeher reports that "we had two interesting visitors to our room just before Christmas vacation, Rob Bignall, a diver for an oil company in Alaska, and his pet parrot, Buck."

The boys and girls learned that a parrot can be lots of company and can be fun to care for and train. Each one got to help Buck practice what Rob had taught him about getting off his perch and on to someone's finger.

Buck is learning to talk but was shy in a schoolroom. Rob told us about his work as an ocean diver and explained to us about the diving gear he wears. He has a dangerous job but it sounds exciting to us."

FIFTH GRADE
Mrs. Roussett's and Mrs. Edwards' classes are having a "Metric Olympics," with the assistance of an OMSI staff member. Students are learning all about converting to metric measure.

SIXTH GRADE
In Mr. LeBrun's room newly elected class officers include: Teri Pursel, president, Lori Russell, vice-president, Steve

Senior volunteers sought for Sandy

Several places in Sandy are in need of volunteer help, reports the Clackamas County Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP).

RSVP tries to match retired people 60 and over who wish to volunteer their time, skill and experience in areas of community need such as schools, libraries and hospitals.

Volunteers will be helped with transportation and meal costs. They are also covered by supplemental automobile insurance, which is provided for by RSVP.

In Sandy, one area in need of volunteers now is St. Jude's Nursing Home, 321 Scenic Drive, according to Christine Stanton, activity and volunteer coordinator at the home.

Volunteers may visit, play games, teach arts and crafts or do almost anything they are interested in that might help, Stanton says.

Someone who is flexible and fits in well with all people would be good as a volunteer here, Stanton says, because some patients are bedfast and others can get up and around.

"With 40 patients, most any kind of help is welcome," Stanton says.

Other RSVP stations in Sandy requesting volunteer assistance are the Sandy Loaves and Fishes, community action, public library and senior center.

RSVP has scheduled office hours from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Jan. 21 at the Sandy Senior Center for anyone who is interested in the RSVP program.

For more information about RSVP call 656-2631, ext. 317, collect, or drop into the office situated at Clackamas Community College, Barlow Room 203, 19600 South Molalla Ave., Oregon City.

Suzanne Stephan engaged

Suzanne Laurine Stephan and Donald Ray O'Dell became engaged Christmas Eve.

Miss Stephan is the daughter of Mrs. Jean Sylvia Stephan, 16313 SE Taylor St., and the late Mr. Stephan.

She was graduated from Centennial High School in 1974 and is a secretary-receptionist for Hawkins, Germundson, Scalf and Young, Attorneys at Law.

The bride-to-be was in the local and state finals in Miss National Teen-ager of America.

Her fiancé is the son of James and Lorene O'Dell, Boring.

He was graduated from Sandy High School in 1974. He works at Chaney's Lumber Co. and is a member of Boring Volunteer Fire Dept.

No wedding date has been set.

Veterans, auxiliaries to meet

The Waldo Caulfield Post and Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will host the mid-winter meeting of District 15 Sunday at 1 p.m. with a potluck dinner in the VFW hall in Oregon City.

Following the dinner separate meetings of the VFW and auxiliaries will be held.

An auxiliary memorial service will be conducted by Mrs. Carl Reed, state auxiliary president.

The Benihana lunch. Good for your soul as well as your stomach.

Any restaurant can feed you for lunch. Benihana also entertains you for lunch.

Every chef at every hibachi table is fiercely dedicated to a single goal. To make you smile as he prepares hibachi vegetables for you.

To make you gasp as he prepares hibachi shrimps for you.

To make you clap and whistle as he prepares hibachi steak for you.

Naturally, every chef delivers the same brilliant performance at dinner. Benihana.

Not only a great eating experience. But a great theatrical experience.
