Couple move to Fort Ord after June 5 wedding

Fort Ord, Calif. will be the first home for Mr. and Mrs. Larry Coleman, married at St. Michael's church on June 5.

Mrs. Coleman is the former Lois Ann Popelka and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dyson, Sandy.

The bride is employed by the U.S. Army Recruiting office in Portland. She was graduated from Sandy Union High School and attended Portland State University.

Coleman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coleman of Moses Lake, Wash., attended school in Colorado Springs, Colo. He also attended Columbia University in Jefferson City, Mo. He is currently in the Army.

Rev. Carl Gimpl performed the double ring afternoon ceremony which featured a special candle ceremony and the ringing of the church bells as the couple left the church.

The bride's gown was of nylon organza featuring a scoop neckline and trumpet sleeves. Matching lace medallions bordered the neckline.

The A-line skirt fell into a full chapel train. There were double bands of matching Chantilly lace accenting a wide flounce at the hemline. The bride also wore her grandmother's diamond pendant and a Queen Victoria thurpence in her shoe. Her bouquet featured stephanotis and gardenias.

Providing music for the wedding were Mrs. David Bordeaux, a childhood friend of the bride who was organist and Mrs. Ralph Sandercock, the soloist.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Thomas Popelka, the bride's sister-in-law. She was gowned in apricot chiffon with cap sleeves and a scoop neckline.

The gown also featured ruffles down the side and around the hem. Mrs. Ben Bates of Gresham was a bridesmaid and was attired like the matron of honor.

The groom's brother-in-law, Roger Knutson, served as best man while Thomas Popelka and Arnold Simpson ushered the guests.

St. Michael's hall was the scene for a reception honoring the couple. Assisting at the reception were Lt. Nancy LaRiviere, Mrs. Paul Levan, Mrs. Wallace Hanlon, Mrs. Michael Zenner and the ladies of St. Michael's.

Special guests included the bride's grandmother Mrs. Albert Burson, Mr. Wes Coleman, College, Alaska; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Knutson, Bellevue, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Simpson, Carolyn and Arna of Moses Lake, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Art Barber of Victoria, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman left for a wedding trip to eastern Oregon and Disneyland before arriving at Fort Ord.

Barbara Smith married at Pleasant Home

Jim L. Paxton and his bride, the former Barbara Eileen Smith, are at home in Milwaukie following their April 17 wedding at Pleasant Home United Methodist Church.

Parents of the couple are Robert Smith, Portland, and the late Mary Smith, and Wanda and Carroll Paxton, West Covina, Calif.

The bride, 1975 Sam Barlow High School graduate, is employed by Owl Answering Service. Her husband was graduated from West Covina High School in 1971 and works for Sizzler Steak House.

The Rev. John Luebke performed the double ring wedding at 3 p.m. Jerry Hardin was soloist.

The bride wore an empire gown with long sleeves and high neckline. It was accented with Cluny lace, which also highlighted the Juliet cap and fingertip veil.

She carried daisies, mums and orchids.

Debbie Recknagle, Portland, was honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Karen Hedden, Boring, and Cathy Mackwood, Eugene.

The honor attendant wore an empire lime green dotted Swiss dress with flocked flowers and the bridesmaids were in yellow. They carried nosegays of daisies and mums.

Craig Paxton, West Covina, was his brother's best man.

Ushers were Andy Reeves, Portland, and Andy Racley, Longview.

MR. AND MRS. JIM L. PAXTON
(Barbara Eileen Smith)

The couple greeted approximately 100 guests at the Sizzler. Assisting were Pat Nippert, Evelyn Hedden and Donna Miller, all of Boring, and Donna Bushard, Fairview. Dora Mackwood, Portland, registered guests. The couple took a wedding trip to Lincoln City.

Thespians schedule tryouts

Sandy Union High School Thespian Troupe 2759 will hold tryouts at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, June 21 in the commons of the high school.

Needed are actors, singers, dancers, instrumentalists and technicians for melodrama and vaudeville. Rehearsals will start June 22.

The troupe will hold a "sneak preview" at the Sandy Mountain Festival and will perform in the commons July 16-17 for a fund raising project for the children's show "The Prince and the Dragon" (already cast).

The melodrama and vaudeville show will be performed in Sandy. The production of the musical fairy tale will travel to Los Angeles in August for the American Theatre Association's national convention.

MR. AND MRS. FLOYD GOKEY
(Nanette Alyce Bordner)

Bordner-Gokey take vows

The garden of her parents' home was the scene of the May 21 wedding of Nanette Alyce Bordner and Floyd Gokey.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Bordner and a recent graduate of Sandy Union High School. She is employed at Heidi's Swiss Village.

Gokey also attended Sandy High School and is employed at the Harris stud mill in Boring. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gokey, also of Sandy.

The late afternoon double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. William Wishon.

The bride's gown was of old-fashioned design in off-white gauze with full lace sleeves. She carried a bouquet of mixed spring flowers. As a special feature, she wore a necklace belonging to her grandmother.

Kelly Mai attended her friend as maid of honor. She wore a gown of lavender crepe and lace and also carried a bouquet of spring flowers.

Dale Culp attended Gokey as best man.

Approximately 100 guests greeted the young couple at a reception held at the Eagle Fern Grange. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Jack Hanson, Mrs. R. Johnson and Donna Snow.

Special guests were grandfathers of the bride, Alex Stepick of Watsonville, Calif., and Martin Bordner of Silver Creek, Wash.

The newlyweds are now at home in Boring.

4-H summer week receives support

Scholarships to 4-H Summer Week at Oregon State University have been made possible by donations from businesses, service clubs and community organizations according to Laurel Stulken, Clackamas county 4-H extension agent.

4-H Summer Week, June 14-19, is designed to give 4-H members in the eighth through 12th grades an opportunity to experience college life on campus. Recipients are chosen by members of their community for successful completion and exception records of 4-H projects. Recipients and donors from the Sandy area are Mark Ten Eyck, General Telephone; Richard Ten Eyck, Westland Realty and the Duane Knapps; Lisa Stankewitsch, Sandy Rexall Drug & Ten Eyck Ranch.

Kurt Brewster, Clackamas County Bank and Clackamas County Fair Board; Samina Simonis, Clackamas County Bank; Nancy Olson, Pacific Pneumatic Service; and Chris Burks, Clackamas County Bank and Clackamas County Fair Board.

Three from Boring receive degrees

Three students from Boring were among candidates to receive degrees from the University of Oregon Health Sciences Center at commencement ceremonies June 11.

Dr. Lewis W. Bluemle, Jr., Health Sciences Center president, awarded degrees and certificates to about 489 students from the Schools of Medicine, Nursing and Dentistry.

One of 193 students to receive bachelor of science degrees in nursing is Dorothy Grace Straub, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Straub, 10781 SE Kathy Lane. A 1971 graduate of West Anchorage High School in Alaska, she has also studied at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

Two of 35 to be recipients of bachelor of science degrees in medical technology are Cynthia Lee Bledsoe Ault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bledsoe, 18572 SE Foster Rd. and Marilyn Dale Hapgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Hapgood, Rt. 1 Box 411.

Cynthia was graduated in 1971 from Centennial High School and received a bachelor of arts degree from Linfield College.

Marilyn, a 1972 Sam Barlow High School graduate, also studied at Mt. Hood Community College and at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

Ambulance responds

Alpine Ambulance Service has responded to 54 calls between June 1-14.

Of these calls, 28 were home first aids. This included broken arms, strokes, gun shot wounds and lacerations.

Motor vehicle accidents accounted for 15 of the calls and the ambulance service answered calls on 11 possible heart attacks.
