One Way Theater updates fairy tale for stage debut

Beauty and the Beast Updated, a play by two Sandy residents, will be presented Saturday, April 22, in the Sandy Elementary School upper grade gym at 7:30 p.m. Beauty is a play for the entire family and is performed by students of Sandy Elementary School. It is sponsored by the Community School and is produced by the One Way Theater, Sandy's new theatre group.

Beauty is produced by Laura LaMarsh and directed by Larry LaMarsh, a husband and wife team with theatrical experience at Spokane's Civic Theater. It was freely adapted from the classic fairy tale by Sandy eighth grader Rob Lawson, who also plays the Beast, and Linda Crockett, a local woman. Along with Lawson, the play stars Pam Cansler also a Sandy eighth grader, as Beauty. Also in the cast are Eric Hadley, Mark Hadley, Matt Madison, Cheryl McIlwain, Lisa Sheppard, Mike Sheppard, Kelly Spradling, Shannon Spradling, Dave Stafford, Melissa Waters and Michele Waters.

This fanciful production features dance routines, period costumes, a wash-buckling swordfight, enchanted trees and bushes that talk, and an evil witch who casts a magic spell on a handsome prince, turning him into a hideous beast. There is no admission charge, but donations will be accepted.

Party set for future Firwood first graders

Next year's first graders in the Sandy Elementary School District are invited to attend a get acquainted party on Wednesday, April 26, at Firwood School.

Any child who will be 6-years-old by Nov. 15 is eligible to attend school next year. Those attending the 1:30 p.m. party will have a chance to visit the first grade rooms, eat ice cream and cookies served by the PTA and become registered for next year's first grade class. Parents are asked to bring a birth certificate along to verify the child's age. State law requires all children new to school to have received immunization against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus (DPT), polio, measles, and rubella before entering school.

Bonds sold for school

United States National Bank was one of the successful bidders on $3,485,000 worth of general obligation bonds for the Sandy Elementary School District. The bank bid jointly with Blyth Eastman Dillon & Co., Inc. in association with a number of other bidders. Proceeds of this bond issue will be used to construct a new elementary school district on some Kelso area property presently owned by the district and a new wing to the Firwood School. These bonds mature serially from April 1, 1979, to April 1, 1998, inclusive, with an effective rate of 5.532 percent.

Home ransacked

Marguerite DeJager of Boring told Clackamas County Sheriff's deputies that her home was ransacked last Wednesday afternoon by burglars who had walked through the home's unlocked back door. Reports indicated that the burglars had taken $200 cash from a desk drawer while she was at work.
