

A dab of make-up finishes the wanted look.

Greg Tebo readies for final performance.

Paul Elder played a dead Nazi in the play. Powder creates the deathly pallor.

A little cream, a dab of eye liner

A little cream moisturizer goes first, then the pancake. A dab of eye liner here and some eye shadow there. And maybe great gobs of clown white or shoe polish. The details varied according to the character but the process was fairly routine for the nine cast members in "Happy Birthday, Wanda June." The Kurt Vonnegut play was performed by the One Way Theatre last Sunday afternoon and played the previous Friday and Saturday nights. Upcoming productions by the One Way Theatre include "The Impossible Years" in the fall and "The Glass Menagerie" in winter. (Photos are by Sue Ann Lafky and John Kline.)

There's money
a lot of it.

The equity in your home is the difference between how much it is worth, and what you still owe on it. It's a valuable asset you can use to back a really big loan ... up to $25,000. With today's rising real estate values, your equity may be bigger than you think. That's good. Because the bigger your equity, the more money we have available for you — for any purpose you have in mind. With a home equity loan from us, you'll be getting a very good rate of interest. And contrary to what happens when refinancing your present mortgage, you'll feel no adverse affect on your current home financing rate. Call us or stop by soon to
