

Staff at St. Jude's hosts reception for founding patrons

Members of the The Society of St. Paul came up from their new monastery near San Diego, Calif., to take part in a 20th anniversary celebration of the founding of the order at St. Jude's Home Tuesday. More than 100 people from around the area joined in the reception to honor the brothers of the order which was founded in Gresham by Father Rene Bozarth in 1958. The society opened the extended nursing care home in Sandy in 1963 and maintained a monastery in the building until 1976 when the brothers moved to their present southern California home. The society is dedicated to performing works of mercy, charity, and evangelism around the world. Its eight brothers and priests have served in hospitals in parts of southwest Africa and the Middle East.

NEW MOOD

The mood is new . . . the shapes are, new. Pants with narrowed legs definitely help keep things in balance. The new pants are made more interesting too, with waist tabs, belts and ties . . . and with pleats galore. These three are from our pant collection for junior sizes. 22.00 to 28.00
