Dear One,

Whee! The people of Sandy are looking forward to entertaining you July 4th through the 9th at our annual Mountain Festival Days.

We have everything from the ridiculous to the sublime: Parade, Fireworks, Pet Rock races, Music from serious to rock and wandering Troubadours, Carnival, a variety of food booths, and, of course, the wonderful work of our Northwest artisans.

Come and wander through Meinig Park where artists display their work along pathways in a beautiful naturalistic setting. Over 100 booths feature paintings, metal sculpture, ceramics, wood carving, macrame, jewelry making, mobiles, etc. When you get tired, relax under the trees in front of the grandstand and listen to live music or stop at the Birdcage Theatre where you can hiss the villain and cheer the heroine in amateur theatricals.

Enter your pet rock in the first international races ever held! Rock from as far away as Alaska have been entered and Prodentia has promised to have a "piece of the rock" competing. However, pari-mutual betting has not yet been approved by the State of Oregon. Local police will be on hand to discourage bookmaking and be on the lookout for the underworld characters hoping to muscle in for a piece of the action.

Much work has been done by many people to make this a fun time for everyone. It would be a shame for you to miss it so come join your friends and mine for the time of your life.

This is a personal invitation. If I don't notice you in the crowd, give me a yell! I'll be looking forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,
Mal
Melvin Haneberg
Mayor
