

Rides and games

FUNTASTIC SHOWS has promised "something for everyone" during the Sandy Mountain Days. Owner Ron Burbank of Vancouver, Wash., says this year's show will feature seven rides, a food wagon and amusement games. The carnival will open the night of July 6 on Strauss Avenue between Odd Fellows Hall and Westland Realty.

Disco dance at the Hall

If your feet like to move to the sounds of the music, you may be interested in two dances planned during the Sandy Mountain Days.

A Fourth of July disco dance will be held at 9 p.m. at the Sandy Odd Fellows Hall, featuring disc jockey C.T. Thomas.

On Saturday, July 8, an outdoor street dance has been planned for the Heritage Square Parking lot. The music by Cock 'n Bull Contraband will begin at 9 p.m.
