

Larry Strutz, Broker, and owner of Kingsway Realty is proud to introduce the sales force which has contributed to the remarkable success of Kingsway Realty since its inception one and one half years ago. Although they come from a variety of backgrounds and locales the Kingsway personnel share a common interest and enthusiasm for Oregon and particularly the East County area. The sensible use of land for new subdivisions and best use of existing properties is also of prime concern to Kingsway's multi-talented crew.
