WATCHING TRAFFIC whiz by Monday afternoon, Jim Dannelley relaxes at Division Street and 182nd Avenue and waits for prospective boat buyers. Although the weather was hot, selling was slow.

Theater tryouts slated

The Sandy One Way Theatre will hold tryouts for its upcoming production "The Impossible Years" next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings (Sept. 5-6) at the Sandy Elementary Intermediate gym.

The play, a comedy, will be presented in November.

Tryouts are open to the public. Laura LaMarsh, who will be directing the play, reported that 15 cast members are needed. "There are several children's roles, so we need people of all ages," LaMarsh said.

Here are more money-saving tips for those who want to play this serious, but rewarding, game:

- The best place to position your air conditioner is in a shaded area.
- Awnings installed over sunlit windows can cut heat gain by 1/2.
- Electric lights, television and radio sets add heat to a room. Turn them off when not necessary.
- For more ideas, ask for a free Watt Watchers' Guide at any PGE office.

ANSWER: Light curtains keep rooms cool by reflecting heat energy from the sun.
