

Priscilla and Michael Paulin

Jester and Paulin wed

Priscilla Jester carried an heirloom handkerchief at her June 3 wedding to Michael Paulin in the Sandy Community Presbyterian Church.

The heirloom had been carried by the bride's mother and grandmother at their weddings.

The bride's dress was designed and made by her mother of off-white cotton with eyellet-embroidered border. She wore silk flowers in her hair.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Jester of Sandy. The groom is the son of Mrs. Connie Paulin of Whittier, Calif. Andrew Paulin of Fullerton, Calif. served as usher.

Music for the ceremony was provided by violinist Susan Hammer. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Clifford Vorm. The couple's candles were lit by their mothers and were later used to light the wedding candle. Altar candles were lit by Dennis and Corinne Pearson of Eugene.

A reception in the church social hall followed the ceremony.

The couple will make their home in Portland.

Arlene and Jeffrey Blakeley

Personal vows

Arlene Hansen and Jeffrey Blakely wrote the vows for their wedding Aug. 19 in the Trinity Lutheran Church in Gresham. The attire of the bridal party and the decor of the church followed a theme of pastel blues and greens.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dan Hallgrimson.

The bride's honor attendant was Peggy Steele of Portland. Bridesmaids were Debbie Silbernagel, the bride's sister, and Terri Newlun from California. The bride's attendants carried white wicker baskets of green and white flowers.

Steve Blakely of Portland served as best man for his brother's wedding. Ushers were Chris Hanson, the bride's brother, and Greg Blakely, brother of the groom.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hansen of Sandy. The groom's father is George A. Blakely of Boring. His mother is Mrs. Judith Klein of Portland.

The groom presented his bride with a gold and diamond cross on the wedding day. A reception followed the ceremony in the church. The couple is living in Portland.

Buhler named trustee

Verne Buhler, principal of Firwood Grade School in the Sandy Elementary School District, has been named to the board of trustees of Judson Baptist College in Portland.

Dr. C. Neal Davis, president of the college, said Buhler was appointed to serve until February 1981. The Sandy resident previously served on the Academic Affairs Committee of the college.

Judson Baptist College is a two-year Christian liberal arts college which offers programs leading to the Associate of Arts and Associate of Science degrees.

The curriculum is designed to provide lower division requirements for the student who plans to transfer to another institution for the baccalaureate degree and to provide a broad exposure to the arts and sciences for students who do not wish to continue their formal education at another institution.

Doreen and Gene Davis

Caba weds Davis

Doreen Caba made the satin and lace gown she wore for her wedding Aug. 17 to Gene Wayne Davis. A 1978 graduate of Sandy High School, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Caba of Boring.

The groom's mother and stepfather are Mr. and Mrs. Al Dickson of Woodinville, Wash. His father is Clifton Davis of Welches. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond Alcorn in the Sandy Assembly of God Church.

The groom's mother and stepfather are Mr. and Mrs. Al Dickson of Woodinville, Wash. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond Alcorn in the Sandy Assembly of God Church.

Cindy Stotts of Sandy was the bride's honor attendant. Her bridesmaids were Teresa Caba, Linda Detherage, Debbie Bennett and Beth Lane.

The best man was Scott Davis, brother of the groom. Ushers were Cecil Caba, Clifton Davis, Dan Brown and Matt Hartwell. Lorrie Bennett and Tony Hale were flower girl and ring bearer.

Organist for the ceremony was Tim De Rosso. Mona Alcorn was vocalist, and musical selections were "Nadia's Theme," "You Light up My Life" and "Evergreen."

Candle lighters were the bride's brother, Gary Caba, the groom's brother, Dan Dickson, and Jana and Charla Alcorn. Mona Alcorn loaned the bride a locket which she wore for the wedding.

The couple will live in San Diego where the groom is serving in the Marine Corps.

Jeffrey was born

Russ and Nancy Ridgeway of Sandy had their first child, a baby boy, on Aug. 25. Named Jeffrey Michael, he weighed 8 pounds, 4 ounces.

The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Andy Ridgeway of Sandy and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Deatheridge of Boring. His great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hale of Sandy and Mrs. and Mrs. Orlando Draheim of Eureka, Calif.

The child also has a great-great-grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Cottingham, who lives in Portland.

Corby and Terri Chappell

Hoodland ceremony

Blue and yellow highlighted the wedding ceremony of Terry Lynn Schmidt and Corby Joseph Chappell on Aug. 5. The wedding was performed by the Rev. Paul Gross at the Hoodland Lutheran Church in Wemme.

The bride carried a bouquet of daisies and yellow rosebuds with baby's breath and yellow ribbon streamers. The church's floral decoration of daisies and baby's breath with yellow ribbons were arranged by the bride and her mother.

The bride made her wedding gown of white cotton eyelet and attached a fingertip veil to her mother's seed pearl wedding cap. Each bridesmaid fashioned her dress of blue and yellow floral cotton.

Bridesmaids were Cheryl Garrison of Milwaukie, Nancy Hopfer of Tillamook, Cecilia Stiles of Dallas, Ore. and Vickie Klein of Salem. Matron of honor was Theresa Zakit of Clackamas.

Carl Chappell of Corvallis, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Tim Walters and Bob Gell of Corvallis, Jim Rankin of Helix, Ore., and Dave Schmidt of Sandy, brother of the bride. The groom's attendants wore blue tuxedos.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmidt of Sandy. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley Chappell of Corvallis. The couple will be living in Independence, Ore.

Entertainment and the arts

JOHNNY CASH FILM

The Theater in Sandy is showing the movie "Gospel Road" through Saturday of this week. The film was made in the Middle East by Johnny Cash to depict the life of Christ in its historical setting. Cash's wife, June Carter, plays the role of Mary Magdalene. The two-hour movie will begin showing at 7 p.m. A special Sunday matinee will begin at 2 p.m.

SWISS WEEKEND

Timberline Lodge is holding its ninth annual "Swiss Weekend" Sept. 23-24. Throughout the weekend, the music, food and festivities will follow a Swiss theme. Saturday evenings a buffet dinner and dance is scheduled, with music from the Alps supplied by the Werner Blaser Swiss Kappwille.

Dancing will begin at 8:30 p.m. in the lodge's rustic lobby. Other entertainers will be singers and yodelers Betty Abbott and Shirley French, and accordionists Walter Aeppli and Dieter Nachman. For reservations or more information, call 272-3311.

ZIGZAG ENTERTAINMENT

Les Lusk is appearing Friday and Saturday from 9 p.m.-2 a.m. at the Zigzag Inn. He performs what proprietor Collette Bartruff calls "uptown western" with his four-piece band and his daughter Leslie as vocalist. Lusk performs in the Inn's "cellar."

AWARD-WINNING PLAY

Willamette Center's New Theater opens on Friday evening, Sept. 22, at 8:30 p.m., with the Mark Allen Players' production of Arthur Miller's Pulitzer prize winning play "Death of a Salesman", directed by Ben Padrow and featuring Mark Allen as Willy Loman. The show runs Friday and Saturday evenings through Oct. 28, 1978. The center is at 121 SW Salmon St. in Portland. For more information call 226-5757.

PIANO RECITAL

Noted concert pianist Istvan Nadas will perform in recital at the University of Portland Sept. 22 at 8 p.m. in the Buckley Center Auditorium, 5000 N. Willamette Blvd. in Portland.

Nadas, who recently completed a South American concert tour for the U.S. State Department, will present a varied program, including works of Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt and Bela Bartok, with whom he studied piano in Europe.

He is well known for his performances of Beethoven's sonatas and the complete keyboard works of Bach, which he will perform at Reed College beginning in February.

Senior Center News

Sandy seniors are preparing for the opening of their new gift shop. Volunteers have been very busy this past week putting up shelves and preparing the shop for use. A volunteer manager and a bookkeeper are needed to operate the gift shop. If you are interested in serving in one of these capacities, or if you know someone who might be, please call the center at 668-5569.

A tour of the Blitz Brewery is planned for Sept. 27 from 1:30 p.m. Following the tour, guests will be treated to refreshments in the Blitz Hospitality Room. There are still a few seats available on the bus.

The October newsletter will include a complete fall schedule of activities. This week is the last opportunity to offer suggestions before the newsletter is published and the schedule finalized.

Golden Age Club

The Sandy Golden Age Club met Sept. 14 for its regular potluck dinner and meeting in the Senior Center with 66 in attendance.

Margaret Garlock was presented as a new member by Johnie Predmore, membership chairman.

Following the flag salute, Grace Leibe, who formerly sang with the Portland Symphonic Choir, led the audience in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Edith Smith served as hostess. Edith Weidman was in charge of the kitchen, assisted by Thayus Parmenter, Verona Gardner, Marie and Martin Allen, Earl Ostrander, Matt Shields and Katie Wolfe.

Edith Weidman announced the Flea Market will be held at the upper level of the Community Center Nov. 3 and 4. Contact Edith at 668-6501 for table rentals and additional information.

A check for $400 was presented to the Sandy Senior Center by Clyde Sutherland, representative of the Sandy Kiwanis Club, as the center's share in the Community Calendar project. This money will go into the trust fund of the Sandy Senior Center, and will not be used for general operating purposes, but for a specific project to be determined later.

A supplement to the Golden Age Club directory is being planned to bring names and addresses up to date.

The deadline for submitting newsletter subscriptions is Sept. 30. The Gift Shop will be ready for occupancy by Oct. 18 for senior citizens in the Sandy Union High School District. The Senior Center will retain a 15 percent commission on each item sold.

President Ernie Hege welcomed Esther Perren and Evelyn Krebs, who have recently been in the hospital. Fay Early was thanked for all the yard work he has done.

Julia Latimer and Maude Johnson entertained the group with a humorous skit. Group singing was accompanied by Ida Munion. Door prizes were received by Alice Will and Esther Perren.

The next Golden Age Club potluck and meeting is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 28.
