OBITUARIES

N. Montambo

Funeral for Norine Montambo of Boring was held Saturday in the chapel of Sandy Funeral Home. Born Norine May Ellsworth on May 5, 1911, she grew up in Michigan. She married Robert Montambo Sept. 15, 1929.

The family moved to Idaho in 1959. Mrs. Montambo moved to the Boring area in 1962 after her husband's death.

She died in a Gresham hospital Nov. 16 after a lengthy illness at age 67. Interment was at Wessemann Cemetery in Orofino, Idaho. She is survived by her 10 children: Pat Searls, Boring; Robert, Roger, Russell, James and Bruce Montambo, all in Idaho; Connie Fry, Sandy; Kathy Searls, Portland; Sharon Schlaht, Sandy, and Mike Montambo, Gresham; four brothers: Robert, Raymond,

George and Dan Ellsworth in Michigan; 30 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

Marion Duley

Marion Kenneth Duley of Parkrose died of an accidental gunshot wound at his home last week.

Mr. Duley, 65, graduated from Boring Grade School in 1928 and Sandy Union High School in 1932. He was active in athletics at Linfield

College where he graduated in 1932.

He was in education most of his adult life. He taught and coached at Sandy High in 1939-40 before moving to Parkrose. He remained at Parkrose High until his retirement in 1975.

Mr. Duley was active in the Parkrose Lions Club.

In addition, he was an organizer of the Portland Wrestling Association.

Funeral was held Nov. 17 in Parkrose.

Workshop set

A three-part workshop explaining the basics of a solar hot-water heating system for the home will be presented at Clackamas Community College starting Tuesday, Nov. 28, at 7:30 p.m. in Community Center, Room 117.

The workshop, which will continue Dec. 5 and 12 at the same time and place, will deal with the basics of solar energy, its feasibility in the Northwest and the cost and savings of a solar hot-water heating system.

The three-part workshop will be followed in winter term with another workshop which will involve the construction of a solar hot-water heating system.

Participants are encouraged to pre-register by calling the Clackamas Community College Services office, 656-2631, ext. 208.
