Pre-natal care needed

Eighty-two percent of all American women do not receive early, adequate prenatal care, according to The National Foundation-

March of Dimes. The sooner a woman sees a doctor, the better protected she is for a healthy outcome of pregnancy.

FFA schedules 3rd annual spaghetti feed

The Third Annual Sandy High Future Farmers of America spaghetti feed will be held next Friday, Dec. 8 at the high school commons.

Chef Pulowski will again make an appearance, according to club advisor Les Geren. "He's a world-famous chef whom we 'import' each year from Italy for this event," Geren reported.

The feed is traditionally held before the first home basketball game each season, but is scheduled to precede the second home game this year.

Serving will begin at 5:15 p.m. and will continue until the game starts.

Garden Club meet scheduled

The Sandy Garden Club will hold its December meeting and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Lewis Depro, 38105 SE Highway 26, Dec. 6 at 11 a.m. There will be a brief business meeting followed by a potluck luncheon.

The program will begin at 1 p.m. featuring guest speaker, Mrs. Eileen Lear, a member of the Wildwood Garden Club. She will speak on "Growing Plants in a Lighted Terrarium."

There will be a $2.00 gift exchange. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Ned Dyal and Mrs. Marge Jacoby.
