

Veterans sponsor benefit auction

Sandy Post 4273 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will sponsor a benefit auction and dance for Ray and Jeanie Gilliland this Saturday, Dec. 15.

The family has recently been beset with extensive medical bills due to an extended stay by Jeanie in the hospital following complications with her pregnancy.

The benefit will begin at 9 a.m. with a rummage sale at the VFW hall on Proctor Boulevard. The sale will continue until 2 p.m.

At 3 p.m. a dance and auction will begin at the hall, right behind the Taco Time. The dance will feature music by the Special Edition and will last until 8 p.m.

Anyone in the Sandy area with auctionable items is asked to contact the VFW hall at 668-5211 after 12 noon.

Single parenting topic of book at city library

The family life and social situations of the single parent are examined in the newly published book, "Going It Alone," by Robert Weiss.

In this book, parents describe the problems of establishing themselves in a community, developing a satisfactory personal life and many of the other vulnerable areas of single-parent life.

Other new adult books include "Georgette Klinger's Sincere" by Georgette Klinger, "In Search of History" by Theodore White and "The World Guide to Gnomes, Fairies and Elves" by Thomas Keightley.

SHORTY'S CORNER two miles east of Sandy on Highway 26 is reopened under new ownership of Gale Meier (left) of Sandy. Meier plans to utilize personnel from his Food King supermarket plus the same suppliers. Hours will be 6:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. seven days a week. He purchased the combination gas station and convenience grocery store from James Stykes, Gresham, owner of Mustang Oil. Meier purchased property in addition to the business, which formerly was leased by Stykes. He plans to stock a more complete line of groceries with the assistance of Sharon's Food King manager Dennis Corcoran (pictured center). While the store will continue gas pumps, the auto garage will be leased for full service mechanics to Bill Parmenter of Sandy, (pictured, left) effective January 1.

Mischief calls hit police

A Sandy man reported the theft of a spare tire and wheel from his pickup truck last Wednesday morning. Allen Hardy of Colorado Road said the items, valued at $65, were taken from his truck when it was in the parking lot of the LDS Church on Bluff Road.

Sandy police responded to a variety of complaints about property damage and criminal mischief throughout the week. Wednesday, a light post and stop sign were knocked down at Hood Chalet Mobile Park.

Somebody poured the contents of a bean bag chair over an automobile parked at 38785 Hood St. Thursday, styrofoam balls scattered around the area.

The mailbox from 38145 Bruns Lane in Sandy was taken and thrown onto Portland General Electric property Friday.

Friday someone broke out a $600 window at the Quartermaster on Proctor Boulevard with a steel pipe. Saturday, a second $600 window at the Quartermaster was knocked out when someone was thrown through the window. Juveniles were involved.

Gale Peterson of 16262 SE Bluff Road reported to police Sunday that someone had driven across the lawn and torn it up.

Robert Spencer of Corvallis reported to police that a tool box, valued at $150, was taken from his vehicle when it was in the parking area at New's 76 station.

Christian women meet

Sandy Christian Women's Club meets tomorrow, Dec. 14, at 11:45 a.m. preceded by an old-fashioned visiting time with punch bowl and cookies at 11:30.

The theme will be "Holiday Waves" and will feature a special microwave cooking demonstration by Melinda Mercer, a home economist.

Glenda Beck, chairperson of the Estacada Christian Women's Club and former Sandy member, will sing and share her ministry. She is a registered nurse and the mother of three daughters.

Baha'is convene

Three members of the Sandy Baha'i Community and two members of the Gresham Baha'is attended the annual Baha'i Winter School at Menucha near Corbett. More than 80 Baha'is from around the Northwest attended the conference from Nov. 22 to 25.

Classes were taught by Helen Bishop, longtime Portland resident and Margaret Gallagher, a member of the auxiliary board who lives in Hayward, Calif.

Subjects included a study of the life of Bab, the forerunner of Baha'u'llah who was the prophet — founder of the Baha'i faith.

She brings together her training in classical, folk, country and western, and soul music to forge a style of her own.

The meeting will be held at the Adventist Center at the intersection of University Avenue and U.S. Highway 26.

Contata scheduled

A joint effort by Orient Baptist Church, cooperating with the Southern Baptist Convention, and Sandy Baptist Church, conservative Baptist, will present a special Christmas contata "His Love... Reaching, A Celebration of God's Gift" by Ron Huff and Bill and Gloria Gaither.

The contata will be under the direction of the Orient Drive Baptist music department and conducted by Doug Castle, associate music director.

The two churches have been rehearsing for five months for this musical presentation of the birth of Christ.

The public is invited to attend the performances. They are Sunday, Dec. 16, at 7 p.m. at the Sandy Baptist Church on Jarl Road, and Sunday, Dec. 23, at 7 p.m. at Orient Drive Baptist Church, 15150 SE Orient Drive, near Kelso Road.

Nursery service will be provided.

Carolling Sunday

Carolers will gather at Chapel of the Hills Sunday, Dec. 16, to prepare for a trip to Sandy to spread Christmas cheer.

The group will serenade residents of St. Jude's Home and Orchard Crest. The carolers will meet at the Chapel at 6 p.m. and they invite any Sandy residents who would like to join them.
