Callahan's New Section

Callahan's Airstep Footwork's new section has opened and is another bright spot on the new wing. While expanding their stock of junior women's shoes, they've also included men's shoes as well.

People are looking for value, according to Tom Callahan, one of the owners. The expansion is a reflection of their perceiving this demand for quality shoes. Tom also noted that he and his brothers are excited about the recent improvements to Eastport and its ongoing expansion.

The attractive new addition to Callahans Shoe Store, where they will feature men's shoes, in the very near future. Addition doubles Callahan's space, enabling them to increase their stock of women's shoes, and add men's shoes.
