ASK ME ABOUT TV

By VAL CAREW

MAIL CALL — Can you tell me where I can write Sha Na Na? I wrote them at their fan club post office box, but found it had expired, and I got the letter back. — Susie M.J., San Jose, Calif.

You can write the group in care of Ron Weisner, 9200 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069.

SOMETHING'S COOKING — Where can I write the fabulous Julia Child? — S.E. Thorn, East Hartford, Conn.

Write her in your neck of the woods, generally speaking. Her address is c/o WGBH-TV, 125 Western Avenue, Boston, MA 02134.

JUDD'S FAN — Please satisfy my curiosity. Is Judd Hirsch married? Does he plan to leave "Taxi" for a film career? — Karen Horney, Hartford, Conn.

Hirsch is single (divorced), and if a great movie role came up and fit into his shooting schedule for "Taxi," he would undoubtedly take it. But not at the expense of his hit TV series. He loves the stage, and that's what he does when he is not working on "Taxi."

ROBERT AND HIS 240 — I don't think the networks care about good programming, so I doubt I'll ever see "240-Robert" again. In the meantime, can you tell me something about John Bennett Perry. I'm in love with him, but he doesn't have to worry; I'm a senior citizen. — M.J., Durham, N.C.

Surprise! "240 Robert" will be coming back, but just when is not certain because of the way the recent actors' strike messed up schedules. Mark Harmon and Joanna Cassidy are in other things, but Perry will probably be back.

He was born in Williamstown, Mass., where he was educated. After college, he got a job with the Serendipity Singers. Eventually he became their lead singer. He has been in many musical comedies as well as singing in Leonard Bernstein's "Mass" at the Metropolitan Opera in New York and the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. When he made the move to California, he began to appear on TV in shows such as "Police Story," "Mannix" and "Little House on the Prairie." He operates a small recording studio with his older brother, Tony, when he is not acting.

A JONES BOY — I saw Tommy Lee Jones in a TV movie called "Jackson County Jail." What else has he been in? — Desperate, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Don't be desperate. Here's relief: Tommy Lee Jones is a Texas boy who played Howard Hughes in a two-part TV movie about the millionaire's life. He also played opposite Faye Dunaway in "The Eyes of Laura Mars." A rising young star, you'll be seeing more of him. Keep watching.

TRIVIA TIME — For 13 years I have been bugged by the name of the very first Smothers Brothers series. Tom had drowned at sea and returned to Earth as an apprentice angel. Tom's superior, who was never seen, was called Ralph. What was the name of the series? — Terry Wilkins, Austin.

The title was right to the point; it was called "The Smothers Brothers Show" and was on CBS for a year beginning in September 1965. Their other shows were called "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour" on CBS and "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour" on ABC, "The Smothers Organic Prime Time Space Ride," syndicated in 1971, and "The Smothers Brothers Show" on NBC in 1975.
