Senior Center News

The Sandy Senior Center will welcome the return of Thursday's exercise class today in the 9 to 10 a.m. time slot to avoid conflict with the resumption of the Humanities Class. That class' members will meet every Thursday from 10 a.m. to noon for the humanities class in the center's upstairs. One half hour of free legal counseling will be offered to seniors through the Clackamas County Senior Law Project this Thursday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the center. For more information, call Jan. 668-5569. The first Golden Age Club potluck of the year will take place today, Jan. 8. Following the meal and business meeting, there will be games. The arts and crafts group will continue to work on projects in preparation for the spring bazaar. Everyone is invited for a fun and productive activity every Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. at the center. This Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. the center's music group will practice for several upcoming events. Due to several requests, a group of seniors will be special guests at the Timm Dairy in Eagle Creek. A tour of the facilities and first-hand observation of the milking procedure is scheduled for next Friday, Jan. 16. Activities for the Week of Jan. 8 to Jan. 15

Fire claims home

The Sandy Fire District responded to 986 emergency calls during 1980. It didn't take long in 1981 for the alarm to sound. At 12:24 a.m., Jan. 1, Sandy emergency personnel responded to an automobile accident on Coalman Road, but were recalled before they arrived at the scene. The district sent two tankers to help the Hoodland Fire District fight a fire at Sleepy Hollow at 5:49 a.m., Jan. 1. Sandy district firefighters battled a fire early Monday morning which destroyed a house at 49025 Wildcat Mountain Drive. Damage was in excess of $300,000, surpassing the total loss by fire in 1980. A class in cardiopulmonary resuscitation will be held at the Sandy Community School on Tuesday and Thursday, Jan. 20 and 22, at 6:30 p.m. There is a sign-up list at the Sandy Fire District's main station.

Grade school may renovate Sandy playshed

The Sandy Elementary School District Board will tonight consider a proposal to renovate the playshed at the Sandy Elementary School, using the remaining building bond funds. The meeting will be held tonight, Jan. 8, in the library at Cedar Ridge School at 7:30 p.m. Included in the playshed renovation would be a new floor, new interior walls and artificial lighting, according to District Superintendent Clark Lund. He said that more natural light would also be utilized with the addition of skylights at the facility. The district has approximately $55,000 remaining in the bond fund, he said. New fencing material would also be placed, replacing some that is badly worn and rusted, Lund said. The district board will also look at some district policy in preparation for a standardization review which will be conducted in the district soon by the state. If it is prepared in time, the district board will examine a possible calendar of events for the 1981-82 school year, Lund said.

Local lot applications before county

The Clackamas County hearings officer will consider a pair of Principal Use Lot Size Variance applications involving Sandy-area properties this Monday, Jan. 12, at 7 p.m. in the County Courthouse. Next Thursday, Jan. 15, at 7 p.m., the hearings officer will consider two Non-Forest Use applications involving Boring-area properties. Paul E. Tucker filed the first application to acquire a variance from the provisions of Section 404.08, to allow the division of his property into two 20-acre parcels, and development of a single-family residence on each lot. The property is on S.E. Laughing Water Road, approximately one-third mile southeast of its intersection with S.E. Bull Run Road. It is a general timber district. The second application for consideration Monday night was filed by Norma Ray Norquist, Norma Ronald and Richard Thomas. They propose to acquire a variance from the provisions of Section 404.08 also. They want to divide property into three lots of 40, 20, and 20 acres each, and develop each lot with a single-family residence. The property, in a general timber district, is at the south end of S.E. Betty Road, approximately one-fourth mile south of its intersection with S.E. Kitzmiller Road, in the Sandy area. Next Thursday, Galen and Myrtle Instness will ask permission to partition the 6.1 acre tax lot into a 4.1-acre and a two-acre parcel, and construct a single-family residence not in conjunction with a forest use on each. The property is on the northwest intersection of S.E. Tickle Creek and S.E. Knox Roads, in the Boring area. It is currently zoned transitional timber. The second application next Thursday evening, involving Boring-area property, would allow Thomas and Susan Perisich to construct a residence, not in conjunction with a forest use, on a lot of record. It is on the west side of S.E. Tickle Creek Road, approximately 350 feet north of S.E. Knox Road. The applications for all these hearings are available for inspection at the Department of Environmental Services, Planning Division, 902 Abernethy Road, Oregon City.
