

Senior Center News

A workshop and honorary tea will be offered to the Sandy Senior Center's office crew tomorrow, Jan. 16. Volunteers will be given an opportunity to share the nature of their duties, as well as make suggestions. Various new social service programs will be explained along with related office procedure.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. Local photographic portrait artist Sandi Poutala will present a collection of her works at the center next Wednesday, Jan. 21, at 1 p.m. Her show will illustrate various effects that are obtainable through different photographic methods. The second monthly Golden Age Club potluck will take place at noon next Thursday, Jan. 22. Area senior citizens should be reminded that the fuel assistance program is now in full swing. Applications for low income persons who need help meeting the cost of heating bills are now being processed at the center every Wednesday afternoon. To see if you qualify, call the center office, 668-5569.

Bahai's plan Religion Day festivities

World Religion Day will be observed by Baha'i communities throughout the world this Sunday, Jan. 18.

The Baha'i Faith originated in Iran in 1844. Its basic teachings include the oneness of God, of religion and of mankind. The Baha'i World Center is located in Haifa, Israel. The purpose of World Religion Day is to stress the unity of all revealed religions and points out that each one has come from God.

The Baha'is of Sandy will celebrate World Religion Day by offering a public talk on the harmony of all religions, Friday, Jan. 16, at 8 p.m. at 18350 Ross Avenue in Sandy.

film "Assignment: Life" at 2 p.m. this Sunday, Jan. 18. It is described as the "atom bomb" of the pro-life movement.

Ann Summers, a bright liberated journalist, goes out to do a round-up story on abortion. She interviews Dr. Alfred and other pro-abortion figures and even witnesses an actual abortion.

Her conclusion is, "A woman has a right to her own body."

After talking with a pro-life business leader, plus the founder of a pro-life group, she decides to visit the Jan. 22 March for Life in Washington, D.C. That begins to open her eyes.

The 52-minute film shows actual abortions and an actual live birth. It is suggested that children under the seventh grade should not view this film because of the frank material that is presented.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Sandy City Council will hold a public hearing on January 19, 1981 at 8:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers at City Hall to consider the application of Gordon Markvardson to place a temporary mobile home on his property at 16035 Bluff Road to house his parents. The request is made so they can care for his parents who are in need of daily health care. Sandy Municipal Code Chapter 17.43 provides for a permit to be issued for a period of one year for the temporary placement of a mobile home so a family can provide health care for members of their immediate family. All interested parties are invited to attend. Testimony from the public will be taken.

NOW CHOICE PLUS INTEREST

Clackamas County Bank gives you a NOW Account option on all checking plans.

You're hearing more and more these days about something new called a NOW account. It's really nothing more than interest on your checking balance, something you've been telling banks you've wanted for a long time. We at Clackamas County Bank suggest that when you hear or see announcements about NOW accounts being offered at other financial institutions, you look carefully at the choice of interest-bearing checking plans they offer. We think you'll find most of them are saying you can have any kind of NOW account you want, as long as it's black. Well, Clackamas County Bank doesn't believe in forcing people into a single choice. That's why we've taken the unique approach of offering checking-with-interest as an option on ALL our checking plans . . . and for years, we've led the way in designing unique checking plans for people of all ages in all walks of life. So, when you come to Clackamas County Bank for your NOW Account, you'll have the freedom to choose the checking plan that's just right for you. And isn't that the kind of choice you've come to expect from Clackamas County Bank?

Clackamas County Bank . . . giving you the hometown advantage.
