ASK ME ABOUT TV

By VAL CAREW

HOLY CHICAGO — Did Morey Amsterdam or Burgess Meredith play the Penguin on the old "Batman" series? — Cathy Lyon, Chicago.

Burgess Meredith played the Penguin, one of "Batman's" dastardly villains, but Morey was not among the impressive actors who played villains on the show because it was then the "in" thing to do. Among them: Maurice Evans, Cliff Robertson, Glynnis Johns, Tallulah Bankhead, Ida Lupino and Howard Duff, Joan Crawford, Shelley Winters, Ethel Merman, Vincent Price, Anne Baxter, Michael Rennie, Liberace, Van Johnson and Art Carney.

BOBBY'S FAN — Is it possible to get Bobby Vinton's address? It is high time he had a show of his own without meddlers telling him what to do. He was super in Chicago. — E.R.N., Chicago.

I'm sure Bobby would agree with you that he should have a show of his own. He's a talented and very likable performer. But a show without meddlers? That's asking a lot. Write Bobby at P.O. Box 767, Pacific Palisades, CA 90272.

DISPUTE WITH DAD — My father and I are having an argument. He says that Penny Marshall and Garry Marshall are brother and sister. I say they are father and daughter. Which of us is right? — Dean Coletta, Northeast, Pa.

Listen to Dad. Penny and Garry are brother and sister.

Their father, Tony Marshall, is producer of the series created by Garry.

PETER AND MARY — What has happened to Peter Lind Hayes and his wife, Mary Healy? Are they still living? — Verna Dzirk, Oxnard, Calif.

They are indeed still living, and still happily married. They act from time to time. Not too long ago, Mary Healy played Amanda in a Las Vegas production of "The Glass Menagerie," with her daughter Cathy Lind Hayes playing Amanda's daughter, Laura. Keep watching for Cathy's name on the TV screen. She is a bright and witty young actress.

THAT'S THE WAY IT IS ON TV — I'm a big "Vegas" fan, but I'm disgusted about something. Many times Dan gets a beautiful girlfriend. Everything is going all right with them, and then she gets killed or something. I want to complain to the writers of the show. How? — E.L.K., Chicago.

Your best bet is to write the producer, Aaron Spelling, at 20th Century Fox Television, 10100 Pico Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90213. But I'll tell you a fact of TV life. The public reacts more to a hero like Dan, an adventurer, when he does not have a wife. The same was always true of those wandering Westerners in the horse operas of early TV. It was fatal for a woman to get involved with them; they had to be kept free of entanglements, so she would often get killed. As a change of pace, she can have a fatal disease or turn out to be a crook who had our hero fooled. Whichever, she has to be gotten out of his life.
