ASK ME ABOUT TV

FAREWELL, DONNY — Why did Donny Most, who played Ralph on "Happy Days," leave the show? — Linda Cooke, Terryville, Conn.

Donny wanted to get out and try other roles. He's been on a hit series, which means he is well off financially, so he felt he could take the chance at cutting loose and seeing what other directions his acting career might take. Lots of actors do this. With some it works, with some it doesn't.

OH, OF COURSE — Telma Hopkins of "Bosom Buddies" looks familiar to me, but I can't recall where I've seen her before. Can you help me? — M.L., Lubbock, Texas.

Sure can. Telma and her partner, Joyce Wilson, were the two ladies who were "Dawn" when the act was called "Tony Orlando and Dawn."

WELL NOW — Do you think Suzanne Somers will get her own show? And why doesn't Miss Piggy ever tell her weight? — Todd Smith, Killington, Conn.

I don't really know what Suzanne will do. She would probably like her own show. But then again, she probably wants to do movies. Many people in the industry think she made a mistake leaving "Three's Company" the way she did. As for Miss Piggy, the lady is obviously a bit overweight and it really wouldn't be polite to ask her to reveal her poundage. Well, under similar circumstances, moi would never tell either.

CHAD'S NOT SAD — What happened to Chad Everett who was on "Medical Center"? — Sophia Potts, Durham, N.C.

Chad did a series called "Hagen" a couple of seasons ago. It was only on for a few episodes, however. Don't worry about him. His series made him very wealthy and now he can act when he wants to. He will again.
