"Ask Pat Hart"

Dear readers,

Thank you for the letters and allowing me to share your life. Maybe together we are helping a neighbor.

Please address your letters to "Ask Pat Hart," co Sandy Post, P.O. Box 68, Sandy, OR 97055. I promise to read and answer all letters, and you may remain anonymous....

Dear Pat,

My wife and I have three teenagers who attend high school. We try hard to raise them the best way we know, with constant love and encouragement.

We learned today that they are very much involved with marijuana and beer parties. We know that booze and drugs are everywhere but how can we direct our children toward the good things in life.

We prefer to handle this privately.

Hopefully,
John and Jane

Dear John & Jane,

Call a family meeting of all members. Select a time that is best for everyone (twice a week is excellent).

Meeting rules (applies to all):

1. Never criticize, dictate, put anyone down, argue or take offense.

2. Each member must participate totally, with equal input.

3. All must express true feelings and honesty.

Begin by going around the table until each person has talked three or four times. The first meeting might be a bit bumpy, but practice makes perfect.

Continue meetings as long as needed.

Sincerely,
Pat Hart

COLUMN ADVICE

Der Mrs. Hart,

I attend school in the Sandy area. I am 13, and I have no one to talk to.

I have friends, but I can't tell them how I feel. They would make fun of me. I don't want to talk to my parents or teachers, because they wouldn't understand.

Why is life so hard and so messed up? I love reading columns like yours. Could I write to you as many times as I want?

Your friend,
Lisa

My dear Lisa,

I would love to have a friend like you. I know we can learn from each other.

Did you know there's a friend waiting for you at a local senior center or nursing home? If there's not one in your neighborhood, then call the director of the center or home and ask to visit with a member or patient by phone. Then one day stop by and visit in person. What a happy reunion for you both!

Lisa, life is so wonderful, if you go out and find it.

Your friend,
Pat Hart

(P.S. Write soon! I'm waiting anxiously for your next letter to learn what is happening in your life.)

Dear Pat,

I have an 18-year-old son that lives at home. Life to him is just one good time.

He leaves a trail of dirty clothes, dirty dishes, dirty bathtubs, dirty sinks, dirty toilets and dirty ashtrays. It may sound like he's a dirty person, but he is clean about some things.

He cleans out our refrigerator, my gas tank, my wife's gas tank, my wallet, my wife's purse, my tool box and my underwear and sock drawer.

Pat, I'm ready for the funny farm. I have had it.
Had it in Boring

Dear Had it,

I loved your letter. At least you have humor. In my opinion, your son is ready for outdoor school. Out your door and into the school of hard knocks!

Best wishes,
Pat Hart
