Two-time winner

According to a popular sports cliché, a true champion is one who can consistently turn in a winning performance. In the field of sports broadcasting, Dick Enberg is such a champion.

NBC's Enberg was selected as the National Sportscaster of the Year for the second consecutive year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He shares the 1980 award with Al Michaels of ABC. Previously, Enberg was named California Sportscaster of the Year four times by the same organization.

He'll receive his award Monday, April 6 in Salisbury, N.C.

Friends forever

A new comedy is in the works at NBC.

Production began recently on "Pals," a half-hour comedy

Jeffrey Tambor

program development project, starring Jeffrey Tambor from "The Ropers" and Tony Lo Bianco from "Police Story." Tambor plays Harry Miller, a hard-luck type who's always getting drawn into the crazy escapades of his free-wheeling brother-in-law, Frank (Lo Bianco). Frank, however, always manages to come out ahead.

Linda Carlson and Margaret Willock co-star.
