"Ask Pat Hart"

Dear Readers,

Do you have an interesting experience to tell about, some good news to share or a problem to solve? I can put your letters in the news. Address them to "ASK PAT HART" co Sandy Post, P.O. Box 68, Sandy, OR 97055.

Dear Pat,

What do you think of a young girl that calls a boy up at all hours of the night and threatens to kill herself, if he doesn't date her? She also writes letters of the same nature, and she has my son so upset that he can't do his school work, he can't sleep and he's skipping the classes that this girl is in.

My son is a mild-mannered person and has great compassion for other peoples feelings, so he can't just pass over this lightly.

I wish you could write something in your column that would help us, as this has been going on for weeks.

Thank you,
 Worried Mom

Dear Worried Mom,

Inform the girl's parents and show them the letters. This should do the job. When your son sees her at school, he can be pleasant. Hopefully, the problem will in time phase itself out.

Sincerely,
 Pat Hart

Dear Mrs. Hart,

I am 15 years old and deeply in love with Allen, who is 21. Allen loves me, and I see him almost every night. We have a sweet relationship, and I enjoy cleaning his apartment and cooking for him. He is all I have in this world, and he is simply wonderful to me.

My problem is my step-

ADVICE COLUMN

father Emmitt. He's a filthy animal, and has been making advances on me, since he married my mother eight months ago. He says I better make love to him, or he will ruin Allen's life by reporting him to the authorities (because I'm under age).

My mother is a dear wonderful person, and she thinks she has a nice man. She holds down two jobs, while her husband doesn't even have one.

I don't want to hurt my mother, but I can't hold on like this any longer. I wish we could get rid of this scum, before something bad happens.

Afraid to tell, but afraid not to . . .

G.G.,
 Sandy Heights

Dear G.G.,
 No wonderful mother

deserves an animal like Emmitt! You must report Emmitt to the authorities, then you should confide "all" to your mother. As for Allen, let him clean his own apartment (for a couple of years at least). My best wishes to you for a speedy recovery.

Your friend,
 Pat Hart

Dear Mrs. Hart,

I met Kristi, a foxy chick, when I was on vacation in Canada two years ago. She came down here to see me last summer. I really care for her, and no one else seems to compare in my book.

It's my turn to visit her this summer, but I am considering not going, because I think she expects that we will get married after my graduation this June.

The problem is she wants children. I would want children, too, if the world were a better place. I've had a hard time growing up, and I can't feel right about bringing children into the world. All I know is, I don't want to lose her. She is so very special.

In love but chicken
 MHCC

Dear Chicken,

The very special lady deserves an honest explanation of your feelings . . . It may not lead to marriage, but its better than leading her on.

Truly,
 Pat Hart
