Foresters to bold potluck on Arbor Day

The Clackamas County Farm Forestry Association (CCFFA) will hold an Arbor Day potluck dinner meeting April 23 from 6 to 9:30 p.m. The meeting will be at the Eagle Creek Grange Hall. Persons attending should bring table services and food if their dues are not paid up. Program leader will be Jim Wolf, chairman of the Association of Marketing Committee. Topic of the evening's discussion will be marketing products of the farm forests, including Christmas trees, sawlogs, poles and fuelwood. All CCFFA members and prospective members are invited to attend.

Local students named to OCE honor roll

Four local students have been named to the Honor Roll at the Oregon College of Education in Monmouth, Ore. Dawn B. Grambo Cheever, Kimberly Jean McCoy and Laurie McDonald of Boring and Lisa Raenell Holliday of Eagle Creek are on the winter term list. To qualify for the Honor Roll, a student must maintain a grade point average of 3.5 to 3.99 while completing at least 12 credit hours.

Kevin Burke and Michael O'Domhnaill will present a concert of Irish music.

Concert to feature Irish tunes

An evening of Irish music will be held this Saturday, April 18, at the Hoodland Women's Club in Zigzag. It will begin at 8 p.m. The concert will feature Irish fiddle player Kevin Burke and guitarist Michael O'Domhnaill. Both were members of the Bothy Band, one of the best and most innovative groups to emerge out of Ireland. Both men have toured extensively in the British Isles, Europe and the United States. Their playing combines Burke's expressive fiddling and O'Domhnaill's innovative guitar accompaniment, and a repertoire of beautiful and haunting songs rendered in English and Gaelic. Opening the concert will be Mt. Hood resident Jon Adams. He will play the guitar and harmonica. Adams is a widely traveled and experienced performer in the Pacific Northwest. Tickets are $4 for general admission and $3.50 for Mountain Music members.

Children will be admitted at half price. Advance tickets are available at The Store-Natural Foods and Cafe and the Mt. Hood Food and General Store in Rhododendron. For more information, call Will Frank at 622-3130.

Sandy man to receive UO diploma

A Sandy man will be among the 623 University of Oregon students who are candidates to receive their degrees at the end of winter term. Bruce Wayne Rowland will receive his bachelor's degree in journalism. Fall and winter commencement ceremonies have been cancelled by UO to save money; degrees will be mailed to those who meet graduation requirements.

Martin completes USAF training

Gary Martin of Sandy has completed his U.S. Air Force basic training and been assigned to Chanute Air Force Base in Illinois. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of Firwood Road. Martin will receive specialized instruction at Chanute in the field of fire protection.

Thomas and Graham set June wedding

A June 8 wedding date has been set for Ruth E. Thomas and Richard L. Graham. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Thomas of Hauglum Road in Sandy. She is a 1979 graduate of Sandy High School and is currently a sophomore at Seattle Pacific University where she studies nursing. The groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Warren R. Graham of Jerusalem, Israel. He graduated from the Hebrew University Secondary School in Jerusalem and is now a sophomore in chemistry, at Seattle Pacific. The couple will be married at the Powell Valley Missionary Covenant Church in Gresham.

Locals gain OIT honors

A pair of Sandy students have made honor lists for winter term at the Oregon Institute of Technology in Klamath Falls. Bernard J. Grassl, an automotive-diesel technology major, is one of 229 students on the President's List. Inclusion on the list requires that a student maintain a grade point average of at least 3.70. John M. Stroup, an electronics engineering technology major, is one of 200 students on the Dean's List. Inclusion on that list requires that a student maintain a grade point average of at least 3.33.
