"Ask Pat Hart"

Dear

Many exciting things are happening in the world today. If it's good news or a problem that I can help you with or something you know that needs sharing, then send it in and see your thoughts and views in the news. Address letters to "ASK PAT HART" c-o Sandy Post, P.O. Box 68, Sandy, OR 97055

Dear

I have a plan for the lady who wrote in a while back about her damaged mail boxes, and I know how she feels. I had the same thing happen to my mail box until I replaced it with 16-inch conduit pipe a few months ago. Now it is tough enough to withstand most abuse. If the lady would like me to assemble one for her, have her call me. Enclosed is my phone number.

A neighbor of mine is handling it in a different way. He has ordered a custom-made rubber mail box of 1-inch thickness. His theory is, when the vandal hits it, he gets hit back. "WOW," I love it... ha, ha.

Country Boy

Dear Country Boy,
Super solutions and humorous, too! Thank you for the letter and let's hear from you again.

Sincerely,
Pat Hart

Dear Pat,
My husband will be retiring soon, and we are trying to plan a cruise, like the one on "Love Boat." We've never been anywhere and can't make up our minds where to go. Since this is our first big trip and most likely our only one, we want it to be just right.

Thank you,
Ready to travel

Pat.

ADVICE COLUMN

good with people, because they have a lot of repeat business.

She would like to get a job where she can make the right contacts and meet the right people to work into a better position. She feels down at times, and I want to help her get somewhere. I love her and she deserves better. I don't feel like a very good mother, and I think I've failed somewhere along the line.

Mrs. Nothing!

Dear Mrs. Nothing,

Your daughter has one of the best opportunities to further herself right where she is. There is an old saying that goes, "You can't see the forest for the trees," meaning that she should look beyond the gas pumps, flat tires and grease. She could make it her goal to conduct a job search, while she works. Stop and consider that people from all walks of life use service stations daily.

She should show a genuine interest in her customers, ask questions about their jobs and learn how they come to be in their line of work.

Tell them her desires and goals, and my guess is that someone will spot the potential in your daughter before too long. Remember that people are wonderful, if you just take the time to talk to them.

Good Luck.
Pat Hart

Dear

Select a travel agent of your choice. The service is free, and these people are trained to serve you. They make great efforts to familiarize themselves with cruises and flights, which is part of their training.

A professional agent will advise you on which cruise, what time of the year to get the best rates, make sure you have the correct documents and information and stay with you until your trip is completely planned.

Bon voyage.
Pat Hart
