'Players' set performances

The Mountain Players will put on a performance of three mini-melodramas beginning Friday, May 22.

Some short skits will also be performed. "Abigail Stands Fast," "John Truehart," and "Not Fit For Man or Beast" are the titles of the three melodramas.

The opening night on May 22 will be Family Night. Adult admission will be $1.50 and children under 16 will be admitted free. Doors open at 7 p.m. and the show will begin at 8 p.m.

Saturday, May 23, will be Cabaret Night, adults only. A steak dinner will be served before the show for a total price of $10. Doors will open at 6 p.m., dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and the show will begin at 8 p.m.

Other shows are scheduled for June 6 and June 20.

All performances will be at the Lions Club in Wemme.

Tickets are available at several Hoodland businesses, including the Barlow Trail Inn, Hoodland Thriftway and Ted's Brightwood Store.

In Sandy, call 668-6598 for ticket information.

Roger Jordan of Sandy and daughter Anna look on at the mad scramble during the Easter egg hunt at Meinig Park Saturday. Hundreds of children took part in the hunt, sponsored by the Sandy Kiwanis Club.

Benefit dinner slated
