ASK ME ABOUT TV

By Val Carew

MISSING FROM TV — I recently saw James Drury on the stage in "California Suite." Why don't we see this fine actor on television anymore? — K.A. Cartwright, Fort Wayne, Ind.

That's just something that happens. Jim was on TV for a long time starring as "The Virginian." He has been doing stock tours in recent years. They are lucrative, as is the series, which went into syndication. Sometimes the industry is afraid of actors who have been "overexposed."

LOOKALIKE — My mother and I have a bet. There is an actor who plays Jonas on "The Young and the Restless" and I want to know if he is any relation to Humphrey Bogart — maybe his son? I know he had a son and daughter by his marriage to Lauren Bacall. — R. Mines, Chicago, Ill. No, the actor, whose name is Jerry Lacy, is not related to Bogart. However, he does indeed look like him, and he played Bogart in Woody Allen's "Play It Again Sam" on Broadway. Bogart's children are named Stephen and Leslie.

VISUAL VOICE — I remember a radio soap opera called "Pepper Young's Family." The man who played Pepper Young had a very pleasant voice. I think I have heard this same voice several times during television commercials, but I have never seen the man. I would love to see what he looks like. — Mrs. M.A., Jewell, Iowa

If you want to see what he looks like, watch "Lou Grant." Mason Adams, who plays Charlie Hume on "Lou Grant," played Pepper Young for 20 years on radio.

Words in the list below appear across, up, down, backwards and diagonally in the diagram. Find each word and draw a circle around its letters, then cross the word off the list. Some circled letters appear in more than one word. The letters that form the answer will be left over. Unscramble and arrange them to create a word, or words, that will provide the answer.
