Sandy man completes boot camp

Private Steve Mager has completed 11 weeks of Recruit Training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego, Calif.

Mager is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Berck of Sandy. The Bercks were on hand to witness their son's graduation from boot camp. Mager is now stationed at Marine Corps Base 29 in Palms, Calif., where he is receiving formal schooling in the Motor Transportation field.

George and Hazel McQuaw

Couple to celebrate 50th

Former Sandy residents George and Hazel McQuaw will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary May 16.

An open house will be held to honor the couple at the home of Dick and Micki McQuaw. The reception will be from 1 to 4 p.m. at 16 SE 172nd Ave. in Portland. All friends are invited to join the celebration.

The couple was married May 16, 1931 in Portland in the house where Hazel was born. They have three children, Dick and Gordon McQuaw of Portland and Elaine Zea of Clatskanie. The McQuaws also have 16 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

They lived in Sandy for 26 years. Hazel wrote small news articles for The Sandy Post and taught knitting with a women's club. George worked as a logger, then became a roofer and the couple moved to Hood River.

They lived on an apple orchard there for 10 years before retiring and settling down in Portland.

A road on Hillcrest, just out of Sandy, is named after the McQuaws.

Locals pass nurse exam

Two local students were among 136 candidates who passed the registered nurse licensing examination held recently.

Monta C. Osborne of Boring and James R. Murphy of Sandy were issued an Oregon Registered Nurse license.

Osborne attended Mt. Hood Community College while Murphy went to Clackamas Community College.

The nursing exam was administered in February.
