ASK ME ABOUT TV

By Val Carew

FANTASY WITH DIALS — Is there any chance of "Fantasy Island" going off the air? It is nothing but a big bore. — G.C., Lawrence, Mass.

The series has been renewed by ABC for next season. The nice thing about TV is that you can make your own fantasy come true if you don't like what you see: Switch channels or turn the set off.

100 PERCENTER — My 100-percent favorite actors are Tom Wopat and John Schneider of "The Dukes of Hazzard." I would like to know if they are really Southern. Thanks. — Ellen Foisie, Pelham, N.H.

Neither fellow was born in the South. Although John Schneider grew up in Atlanta, he was born in Mount Kisco, N.Y. Tom Wopat was born and raised in Lodi, Wis.

MOVIE TIME — Please tell me the name of the movie on TV that Jaclyn Smith and Tony Curtis were in. Is it going to be on again? — C.M., Chicago

The 1978 TV movie was called "The Users" and it was one of those "inside" looks at Hollywood with an all-star cast, headed by Jackie and Tony. It is in syndication and does appear from time to time on late-night TV. Just keep checking your local listings.

TEST QUESTION — Who is responsible for "Love Boat" screen tests? — A.C.C., Youngstown, Ohio

No one. "Love Boat" casts its actors through agents. Stars are offered roles and supporting players have readings arranged by agents. But readings are not screen tests.
