Gospel concert set Wednesday

A very talented family will appear next week in Sandy. The Singing Deweys of Nashville, Tenn. will present a gospel music concert at 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 17, in the Sandy Assembly of God Church.

The family consists of Levoy and Cleon Dewey and their daughters, Cindy and Susie. They have traveled as a family group since 1967, singing across the United States at denominational conventions, churches, fairs, colleges and television programs such as "700 Club" and "The Jimmy Swaggart Show."

They have also sung on the Grand Ole Opry, at the People's Church in Toronto, and in the Shakespearean Theatre. Recent trips have taken them to Central America, Pacific Islands, India and Europe.

The Deweys originally recorded for Heartwarming Records, but more recently worked with LTD Productions, their own music company.

It was under this label that "Because of Yesterday," which won the 1974 SESAC "Gospel Song of the Year," was published. Another release, "Heaven's Sounding Sweeter (All the Time)," has been recorded by Jimmy Swaggart, as well as numerous other people and remains high on the charts.

Levoy and Cleon write most of the material, including such gospel hit songs as "Jesus Is My Best Friend," "Welcome Back, Jesus" and "Battle-Scarred."

The Deweys play 15 different instruments during their program, ranging from stringed instruments to keyboard and wind instruments.

Admission is free.

Christine Rockwood, Dixie Cochran and Carmen Morrison were named S.T.A.R.'s at a recent Mother-Daughter Tea.

Sandy girls honored at tea

Sandy Assembly of God, Missionette Department, had their annual Mother-Daughter Tea last month.

The highlight of this event was a special crowning ceremony of three S.T.A.R.'s, Christine Rockwood, Dixie Cochran and Carmen Morrison. They have completed their achievements on the Stairway to the Stars program of Missionettes.

Each letter of S.T.A.R. involves a character study of women mentioned in the Bible: Susanna, Tabitha, Anna and Ruth. The girls may continue on in the program to become honor stars.

Awards were also given to the Rainbows, Prims, and Jr.-S. Missionettes at the tea.

Bible study clubs set to go

Five Day Clubs will be held throughout the Sandy area, sponsored by Sandy Baptist Church, during the week of June 22-27.

Five Day Clubs, or Backyard Bible Clubs, are held one hour a day Monday through Friday. The hour of the club may vary depending on the individuals hosts and hostesses. At the present time, organizers anticipate at least five clubs will be going on that week.

Anyone interested in opening their yard or home to host a Five Day Club may contact Sharla Futrell, 668-4322, or Lorraine Grable, 668-4795.

The clubs are non-denominational and consist of a Bible story, a memory verse, a missionary story and a contest.

Four young people from Sandy Baptist Church will go to Multnomah School of the Bible, June 13-20, to a Christian Youth in Action training seminar to gain experience for leading Five Day Clubs. The young people are Kim Snyder, Connie Craven, Andy Edgren and Steve Grable. They will be joined by eight to 10 adults and will form the teams that will lead the Five Day Clubs.

Homes are currently being sought for club hosts. If the weather permits, the clubs are held outside.

"If you live in an area where there are many children, from the ages of 4 through 12, and would be willing to open your home and yard for a club, we would encourage you to let us know," said Farrell.

Musical drama slated

A musical drama, "The Witness," will be presented for the community next Wednesday, June 17, at 7 p.m. at Sandy Union High School.

"The Witness," written by Jimmy and Carol Owens, portrays the disciples' viewpoint of their time with Jesus Christ. Through solos, narration and group choruses, the hour-long production shows Jesus as a person.

The musical incorporates humor, the serious and some moving depictions of the disciples and their master.

It will be presented by the East Hill Singers, high school and college youth from Gresham. For additional information, call 668-4949.
