Oral Hull members participated in the Elks' Parade on Flag Day.

Oral Hull members march in parade

Members of the Oral Hull Foundation for the Blind participated last week in the Elks' Parade in Gresham.

The parade was June 13, honoring Flag Day.

The Oral Hull bus was decorated with flags, streamers, balloons and liberty bells. Oral Hull residents Nellie Couch and Alice Bankston walked with their guide dogs, assisted by Denise Darling and Denise Elbon.

The bus, filled with members of the foundation, was driven by Al Koehler of the Sandy Lions Club.

The bus was decorated by Larry and Dawn Dahlke and Kay Darling.

Gary and Tia Martin

Martin, Bailey marry

Tia Lynn Bailey and Gary Alan Martin, both of Sandy, were married May 2.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Bailey of Sandy. She is a 1980 graduate of Sandy High School.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of Sandy. He is a 1979 graduate of Sandy High and is employed by the U.S. Air Force.

The wedding was at the United Methodist Church in Gresham. A reception was also held at the church.

Honor attendant at the wedding was Robin Rohde of Sandy. Bridesmaids were Kim Colt of Grand Forks, N.D., and Faye Hill of Gresham.

Best man was Jim Bolander of Sandy. Mike Martin and Royal Proctor, both of Sandy, were ushers.

An out-of-town guest at the wedding was Iris Martin, of Augusta, Ga.

The couple will make their home in Montgomery, Ala.

Locals graduate from CCC

A number of local students received their degrees Friday, June 12, at the Clackamas Community College commencement.
