Boring sheep raisers nab lamb show awards

A number of local sheep raisers won awards at the 35th annual Clackamas County Lamb and Wool Show last week.

Renee Aschoff of Boring was a top winner in the junior novice division of the Youth Showmanship contest. She also placed seventh in the Suffolk Ewe Lamb category and third in the Youth Wool Fleece division.

Lori Aschoff, also of Boring, was second in Junior Novice Youth Showmanship. She placed sixth in the Suffolk Ewe Lamb contest.

Trevor Storle of Boring was third in the 4-H Single Market Lamb division and sixth in the Crossbred Ewe Lamb competition.

Hal and Dolores Vrooman of Boring were first in the open class of Columbia Wool Fleece and first in Cheviot Wool Fleece.

Raenell Bright of Boring was 10th in Senior Youth Showmanship.

The show was held at the Clackamas County Fairgrounds in Canby.

Crawl space ventilation needed

Homeowners and renters with crawl spaces underneath their dwellings should open air vents for the summer to prevent structural dry rot.

Air vents should be closed from October to April or May to keep cold air outside of an uninsulated crawl space.

Plastic sheeting installed on the ground of the crawl space will reduce moisture transfer from the crawl space into rooms above.
