

With a fresh coat of paint, renovation work on the Sandy Grade School playshed nears completion. A wire mesh will be added, though the facility will be open to the public. Total cost of the project is about $15,000. Final touches should be finished in early July.

Church sets 5-day clubs

Five Day clubs will be held throughout the Sandy area the week of June 22-26.

The clubs are non-denominational in nature, consisting of a Bible story, a missionary story, songs, a contest and refreshments. They are being sponsored locally by the Sandy Baptist Church.

The clubs use child evangelism material and the Bible stories are "Lost and Found." The missionary story, titled "Run, Ma, Run," concerns the life of African missionary Mary Sleser.

Clubs will be located in the Marmot area at 10 a.m.; at the home of Doris and Chuck Peterson, 59160 E. Sleepy Hollow Road, at 2 p.m.; at the home of Gary Blisner of McCormick Road at 11 a.m.; and at the home of Paul Redmonds, on McCormick Road. A time has not been set at the Redmonds home, but information is available by calling 668-5715.

A fifth club will be held at Garden Valley Apartments, 38475 Park Street, at 10 a.m. An additional club may be held in the Sandy Heights area, but information was not available at press time. For more information on the time or location of the clubs, call Sharla Futrell, 668-4322, Lorraine Grable, 668-4795, or the church office, 668-4064.

The clubs will last approximately an hour and are open to children ages three to 12. They are taught by teams of youngsters and adults and are being hosted by the homes where they will appear.

Former nun featured

Former nun Susie LaFond Corrigan will be the featured speaker this Monday, June 22, at Jubilee, formerly known as Sandy Kaffee Klatsch.

Corrigan lived in the Sisters of St. Francis Convent for four years before leaving to marry her high school sweetheart.

She comes from a family of 10 and said that the community and family are important to her. She and her husband, Tim, have four children, ages four, six, eight and 10.

All women are invited to hear Corrigan speak at "Our Love Story" at the Living Way Fellowship, formerly St. Michael's Parish Hall, on Strauss Avenue.

The program will run from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Gospel businessmen to meet

The Hoodland Gospel Businessmen Fellowship International will meet Friday, June 26, at T.J.'s Restaurant in Sandy.

A family style spaghetti dinner will be held, beginning at 7 p.m. Admission is $3.50 a person.

Guest speaker at the meeting will be Duane Parrish, a pastor at the Christ

Center in Beaverton. Parrish underwent major brain surgery which took away his ability to read, write, spell and speak. Those communicative skills are returning and he will relate his experiences at the dinner.

To make a reservation, call 668-4695, 662-4526 or 665-0254.
