

Odd Couple, Bird Cage shows set

Festival-goers interested in live theater will have a number of chances to satisfy their appetite for melodrama and comedy during the weekend.

The Birdcage Theater will offer melodrama throughout the afternoon Saturday and Sunday on the stage in Meinig Park.

Uptown in the Sandy Community Theater, the Sandy Community Players will present Neil Simon's "The Odd Couple" Friday and Saturday, July 10 and 11, at 8 p.m.

The production, directed by Larry LaMarsh, will also play July 4 at a special time. The play will begin at 7:30 p.m. to give theater-goers an opportunity to attend the fireworks display that evening at the Sandy High School athletic field.

The Anna Geyer Dancers take to the Birdcage Theater stage Saturday morning at 11 a.m. Also entertaining will be a pair of strolling minstrels, Janet Sanders of Eugene and Jon Adams from the Hoodland area.

Teen dance set July 3

Sandy teens will get to "rock out" at the Sandy Festival Dance, July 3.

The dance will be held at Sandy High School in the commons from 8 to 11 p.m. Cost will be $2 per student.

"All money will go back to the students," besides a fee for using the building, said Harold Hazelett, chiropractor and member of the Optimists club who are sponsoring the event.

The proceeds will go for scholarship to a high school student who can not afford college. Last year, the Optimists were successful in raising $250 for the scholarship, according to Hazelett.

The Optimists have also raised money for the Talented and Gifted (TAG) program and many other programs for teens and children.

The Sandy Community Players will present the Neil Simon classic "The Odd Couple" July 10 and 11 at 8 p.m.
