Late-night fantasies

The continuing success of a late-night soap opera is threatened when several of the show's most popular stars are mysteriously killed.

That's the theme of a two-hour motion picture presently being filmed in Los Angeles, to be telecast next season on ABC. Called "Fantasies," the film stars Suzanne Pleshette, Barry Newman and Robert Vaughn.

Also appearing in the film are stars from four of daytime television's soap operas: Peter Bergman of "All My Children," Stuart Damon and Robin Mattson of "General Hospital," John Gabriel of "Ryan's Hope" and Robert S. Woods of "One Life to Live."

Great performances

July is concert time on PBS. Herbert von Karajan and the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, with world-renowned cellist Mstislav Rostropovich and violist Ulrich Koch, return to "Great Performances" Sunday, July 26, as part of the series' special July programming. (Local times may vary; check listings.)

The concert features "Der Freischutz" which, based on Germanic legend, tells the story of a marksman who sells his soul to the devil in exchange for magic bullets. The overture is considered by many to be one of the finest in operatic literature.

Also featured is "Don Quixote," a symphonic poem based on Cervantes' famous novel of idealism, heroism and illusion.

Royal wedding

The wedding ceremony of Prince Charles and Lady Diana at St. Paul's Cathedral, the processions to and from Buckingham Palace and the traditional appearance of the Prince and his bride on the palace balcony to greet the assembled crowd will be covered live Wednesday, July 29 on CBS. (Check times in your area.) Live coverage of the couple's departure from the palace for their honeymoon will be covered later in the morning in a brief special report.

Dan Rather will anchor the coverage from a rooftop position overlooking the entrance to St. Paul's Cathedral where he will be joined by British television personality David Frost. Lady Antonia Fraser, best-selling English historian of royalty, will provide commentary.

ASK ME ABOUT TV

By Val Carew

MARK'S THE SPOT — I'm a great fan of Mark Hamill of "Star Wars" and its sequel. Could you please give me his address? — David Flanhagan, Brownwood, Texas

Mark guards his privacy so much that interviewers meet him at his agent's instead of his house. Write him in care of the Sackheim Agency, 9301 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 606, Beverly Hills, Ca. 90210.

FAMILY TREE — I am working on a family tree and I think Keenan Wynn might be on it. — James Todg, Grove Springs, Mo.

Write Keenan in care of Robinson and Associates, 132 South Rodeo Drive, Beverly Hills, Ca. 90212.

HAZZARDOUS QUESTION — I watch "Dukes of Hazzard" all the time and was wondering if Hazzard County really exists. If so, what state is it in? — Fred Elenge, Belleville, Ill.

Hazzard County is fictitious, situated somewhere in the South. The first season the series was on the air, it was filmed in Georgia, but that doesn't mean it takes place there.

DISNEY GONE — Is it true that the Disney program is going off TV? — Marianne Meteo, Ford, Washington

Yes. Letters protesting a cancellation sometimes have an effect, but probably not in this case. However, Disney is planning TV specials and other programs.
