

The Sandy Golden Age Club holds its first potluck of August today at noon at the Sandy Senior Center.

Diners are asked to bring an appropriate dish and their own table service. A program follows the meal at approximately 12:45 p.m.

An all-day excursion is planned tomorrow, Aug. 14, to Junction City for the renowned Scandinavian Festival. More than 250 craft and food booths will be featured as well as entertainment throughout the day and evening.

Departure from the Sandy Senior Center will be 8:30 a.m., preceded by a pancake breakfast at the center at 7:30 a.m.

A Keep Well Clinic, sponsored by the Clackamas County Health Department, is scheduled next Thursday, Aug. 20, from 9 a.m. to noon at the center.

This bi-monthly health screening program is available to all seniors 60 years of age and older on a donation basis. Participants are asked to stop in at the Sandy Senior Center office for an appointment and list of instructions.

Jubilee meets Monday night

Letha Mathews will speak at Jubilee this Monday evening, Aug. 17, about the joys, excitement and challenges of being a woman in today's world.

She has been a favorite speaker for many women's conferences, retreats and meetings, not only because of her outward beauty, but because of her beautiful spirit, warm smile and the practical ways she shares insights and wisdom.

"When God created woman, He made her in a special, unique way — no other creature was formed the way woman was," she said. "And God has always regarded women with honor and respect. Women need to see how unique and valuable they are."

Women of all ages are welcome to attend Jubilee from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Living Way Fellowship on Strauss Avenue, across the Sandy Elementary School.
