

Keeping the momentum going

He also pointed out that senior Cal McKinnis had a good game. He had about 20 tackles all together, including solo and group tackles, and had a solo quarterback sack and a key fumble recovery.

O'Meara also mentioned senior Dale Rasmussen, a tackle, and senior Randy Carmony, a center, for playing well offensively.

Noe carried the ball five times for 37 yards, and junior Scott Skipper carried the ball six times for 20 yards.

Paola completed three of 15 passes for 38 yards, and threw two interceptions.

Senior Todd Byron made one of those receptions, for 11 yards. Kearney caught one for 20 yards and junior Mark Tinjum caught one for

O'Meara and some of his assistant coaches scouted Friday's Jefferson-Canby game, which Canby lost 27-26

You can't take them lightly," O'Meara said of Jefferson.

He said that they've got a good quarterback, who is, by the way, left handed, and a lineman-turned-running back in the backfield. "He runs hard right up the middle," O'Meara said.

O'Meara, who's in his second season as head coach, is hoping his players have a good night mentally, and that the momentum stays with them.

"They've got some quick people," he said. "We'll have to shut 'em down early."

seven yards.

Senior Chris Crabtree had the only interception of the evening for Sandy.

when they failed to convert on a two-point play near the end of the game.

"They're a good ball team."
