THE SOCCER team got a 2-1 win over Forest Grove Tuesday night in a home game.

ALTHOUGH SANDY FELL 27-0, Coach Greg O'Meara wasn't that displeased with the football team.

"I felt our defense, overall, played pretty well," he said. "We had pressure on their quarterback when he went to throw. We had several sacks."

"We stopped them up the middle. On sweeps we held 'em down pretty well. They just had, I felt, a few key long gainers where we let down a little."

O'Meara credited Stu Hofman, Randy Carmony, Tim Sytsma (who had 14 tackles), Scott Skipper, Dan Martin, Cal McKinnis and Roland Aumuller with playing good defense.

It was Chuck Kearney that was chasing that fumble for so long at the first of the third quarter. Martin finally fell on it. It was a good effort by both players, although the Pioneers were unable to capitalize on the first and 10 at the Oregon City 21.

VOLLEYBALL COACH Ron Grantz was pleased with his team's efforts last weekend at a tournament in Corvallis. Five of the eight teams there were ranked, and Grantz called it the "who's who of volleyball."

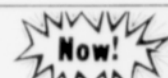

He said, "We could have very easily gone zip and seven, but we ended up going four and three."

What pleased him is that they've started eliminating mental errors.

Last Thursday they got a key win over Oregon City, winning 15-9 and 15-10. Sandy and Estacada took identical

5-2 league records into a SUHS losing the key dual match Tuesday night, with 12-15, 16-14 and 6-15.
