

Tammy Petersen, 11, has won a 19-inch color television as first prize in the Sandy Post's annual fall subscription drive. The Firwood School fifth-grader worked some 40 days to sell more than 70 subscriptions in her prize-winning effort.

Evangelists schedule visit

The Musical Larrings, an internationally-known ministry in word and song will be at Sandy Assembly of God, 39800 E. Highway 26, this Sunday, Nov. 15, for the morning worship service at 10:45 a.m. and Sunday evening at 6 p.m.

This California-based husband and wife team have brought their music and message worldwide. Their ministry is presented through television, radio, recordings and personal appearances.

Johnny, a native of Norway, sings with a deep baritone voice and brings a timely message from the word of God. He frequently ministers in general and district conferences, camp meetings and church revivals around the world.

Ruth's ministry in music completes the Larring team. Not only does she have an unusually deep contralto voice, but her piano playing has brought her wide acclaim. The public is invited to attend these special services.

Senior Center News

Preparations are underway for an 8:30 a.m. departure from the Sandy Senior Center to the Pendleton Woolen Mills and outlet store Friday, Nov. 13. Return to the center should be around 4 p.m.

A celebration to honor the 10th anniversary of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program will be held at the Sandy center Monday, Nov. 16, at 1 p.m. Center participants are asked to attend and bring a prospective volunteer.

RSVP staff will be on hand to discuss the various components of the program and the rewards and advantages of becoming an RSVP volunteer. Refreshments will be served until 3 p.m.

The monthly Men's Breakfast will be held Tuesday, Nov. 17, at 7:30 p.m. Darrell Dempster will discuss current trends in real estate. Seniors and guests are invited.

Salazar's at Zigzag will be the setting for the Nov. 18 Senior Dine-Out. The entrée will be Swiss steak. Interested seniors should contact the center for reservations, 668-5569. Transportation will be provided.

The Friendly Nook Craft Shop needs handcrafted items for the Christmas season. Persons 55 and older who would like to sell their goods are encouraged to contact the center for more information.

Missionaries visit Sandy church

Becky Sparre will be the special speaker for this month's Joy Fellowship this Monday, Nov. 16, at 7 p.m.

She is in a sense coming home as she and her husband, Ray, are former assistant pastors of Sandy Assembly of God. They are now missionaries and have worked in both the Marshall and Solomon Islands.

Becky will share the woman's point of view concerning life in the mission field. Special music will be provided by Ray and Becky.

Joan Walker, Women's Ministries coordinator, will display various craft items that will be offered at the upcoming craft sale Dec. 4 and 5.

Joy Fellowship will be held in the Fellowship Hall of Sandy Assembly of God and all women in the community are invited. No admission is charged and babysitting is furnished. For reservations, call the church, 668-5589.

Retired teachers meet

Charles "Chuck" Abshier, director of the library at Mt. Hood Community College, will be the featured speaker at the Nov. 18 meeting of the Barlow Trail Unit of the Oregon Retired Educators.

Abshier, who taught a class in humanities at the Sandy Senior Center, will look at the history of people of the Northwest who were here, who came here and the effects of what they found—or why Oregonians are like they are.

Meeting time is 2 p.m. in the recreation room at Hood Chalet on South Bluff Road.

This is the meeting to bring canned or packaged food for the annual donation to HELPS at the Sandy Community Action Center. Persons interested in hearing Abshier speak are welcome.

Kid's clinic planned by Sandy club

The Sandy Optimist Club will sponsor a free Children's Health Clinic next Saturday, Nov. 21.

Free exams will be conducted from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. by more than 20 doctors and interns for children between the ages of 6 and 12. Children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

The free clinic will be the Sandy Community Center, 38348 Pioneer Blvd. Examinations will include free physical exams, hearing tests, dental checks and ophthalmology exams.

Written reports of the exam will be presented to the parent or guardian. No treatment will be administered at this clinic.
