Recipe given for cottage cheese pancakes

by SARA SEWELL

Cottage Cheese Pancakes

4 eggs
1 cup cottage cheese (do not drain)
1 cup sour cream
1 cup self-rising flour
1 tablespoon sugar
Beat eggs well, add cottage cheese, sour cream and flour. Stir. Add sugar. If too thick, add more sour cream or buttermilk. Fry on a hot greased griddle. Serves 4. From the files of Mrs. Jena Antonchuk, Redwood City, Calif. She serves them with jelly, sour cream and syrup, if you like. Mrs. Antonchuk is the mother-in-law of John Sulzbach whom some of you know.

Oven Barbecued Rabbit or Spareribs
One (5 lb) rabbit or 5 lbs spareribs
1 bottle barbecue sauce
Two-thirds can or bottle of beer

Season with salt, pepper and garlic salt.

Cook covered at 350 degrees for 1 hour, uncover and cook 1 to 2 hours more at 250 degrees until sauce is right consistency. Delicious! Do not pre-brown meat. Serves 6. From the files of Verna Black, Sandy.

I have been asked to repeat this recipe. Keep it handy for your Thanksgiving or Christmas dinners. It will make a hit even with those who usually do not like sweet potatoes or yams.

Sweet Potato Crunch

2 or 3 large sweet potatoes or yams, approximately 2 lbs or 1 large can and 1 small can or 1 super large can (40 oz)
1 cup margarine
1 cup brown sugar
3 well-beaten eggs
Topping:
Mix together 1 cup chopped pecans or walnuts
3 cups crushed corn flakes

1 cube melted margarine
¾ cup brown sugar

Cook potatoes, peel and mash lightly. Add cube of margarine and cup of brown sugar while the potatoes are hot. If using canned potatoes, heat in liquid, drain and mash while hot. Cool. Add beaten eggs. Put into buttered casserole. Add topping. Bake in 350 degree oven until lightly browned, about 20 minutes. Serves 10-12. From the files of Sara S. Berger, Sandy.
