Santa arrives Saturday

Dancers, carolers and a slide show will highlight a Santa's Bazaar 9-5 p.m. this Friday and Saturday in Sandy's Heritage Square.

Some 30 exhibits with everything from computers to handmade gift items will fill the building adjacent to Cejka Hardware.

Sure to please the kids is Santa's arrival by helicopter 10 a.m. Saturday in Heritage Square.

Santa will join Mountain

Bear to chat with children and hand out candy canes.

Mountain Bear is the new mascot of Sandy Area Merchants, the Chamber of Commerce retail committee that is sponsoring the citywide bazaar.

Another highlight will be eight Christmas trees decorated by each of the grades in local elementary schools.

Photographs with Santa Claus also will be available at the Heritage Square bazaar.

The Geyer School of Dance will entertain at Santa's Bazaar, as will carolers from the Sandy High School music department.

Sandy Mountain Festival Committee will exhibit slides from outstanding scenes at recent summer arts festivals.

Many local stores also will display Christmas gift ideas including some bargain prices.

Other exhibits include bake sales and handcrafted items.

Mt. Hood Espie, Sandy Community Players and Sandy Garden Club also will exhibit at the bazaar.

Fine art, ceramics, imported toys and jewelry and handmade candles and calendars also will be displayed.

Industrial mishap kills Sandy man

An industrial accident Sunday claimed the life of a Sandy man.

A one-and-a-half-ton table fell on two workers at a steel fabricating plant southeast of Portland killing the man and injuring a co-worker, according to Clackamas County sheriff's department reports.

Allen Eugene Shore, 29, of Sandy, was struck in the head and killed instantly by a falling transfer table being built for sawmill use by Brolat Steel Fabricators, 5700 SE Johnson Creek Blvd.

Robert Reese, 34, of Beaverton, was struck in an ankle and foot. He is in satisfactory condition Monday at St. Vincent Hospital.

According to Lt. Lonnie Ryan, sheriff's department information officer, the 24-foot-long table was resting on its side on two steel sawhorses when it slipped off and fell onto the men, who were getting ready to move it.

Shore owned and operated Tail's End Western Shop in Sandy with his wife, Carolyn.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 11 a.m. at Bateman's Funeral Chapel in Gresham.
