Ross, Courser married

Sunday, Nov. 22, at two o'clock a lovely wedding took place at the Sandy Seventh-day Adventist Church, when Leroy Ross and Cambra Courser exchanged marriage vows.

The former pastor of the church, Terry Zull, now pastoring the Medford church, performed the wedding ceremony.

They were flanked by candle light and a flower-decked candelabra background.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Courser, Sandy, and the groom is the son of James Ross, formerly of Sandy, now residing in Anchorage, Ala., where Leroy has been helping him in construction work. The bride works in data progressing at Portland Bottling Co. in Portland.

Those attending the couple were Susan Kebekol, maid of honor, with Crisann Myers and Vicki Ross as bridesmaids.

Randy Caudell was best man and Steve McFeters and Doug Hensley were the groom's attendants. Jill Claridge was flower girl and Peter Oxentenko, nephew of the bride, carried the Bible. Candle lighters were Patty Caudell and Kip Courser, brother of the bride.

At the organ was Jeanine Kingsbury, and Terry Winslow sang "The Wedding Song," accompanying himself on the guitar. Mrs. Sharon Zull sang "The Lord's Prayer," after the ceremony.

The church was filled to capacity with many friends and relatives from Sandy, the surrounding area and distant places.

The Ross family, parents of the groom were present from Alaska, as were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gingery, grandparents of the groom. The mother of the groom, Diane Hensley, was present from Bullhead City, Ariz. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ross, grandparents of the groom from Angwin, Calif., Dr. and Mrs. Darel Courser, uncle of the bride from Bakersfield, Calif., Jennie May McCammet, great aunt of the bride from Magalia, Calif., and many other friends from Walla Walla, Wash., Pendleton, Cornelius, and lots of friends from Sandy, were present.
