Representatives from the Clackamas County Community Action Agency are available at the Sandy Senior Center on an appointment basis to process fuel assistance applications for Sandy area residents.

To qualify, a single person's monthly income must not exceed $449, although allowances can be made for out-of-pocket expenses over a 12 month period. For a couple, the maximum is $592.75 per month. For more information, contact the center at 668-5569.

Members of the Sandy Senior Center Planning and Evaluation Subcommittee will meet this Tuesday, Jan. 4, at 9:30 a.m. An activity and trip schedule for February will be among the agenda items discussed. Any interested member of the center who would like to offer some suggestions in the planning process is invited to attend.

Phyllis Rader will be the center's featured guest speaker next Wednesday, Jan. 6, following the Loaves and Fishes Meal. She will discuss her hobby of antique doll and toy collecting, as well as provide a display of some of her most interesting articles.

Appointments are still available for persons over 60 years of age who wish to take advantage of the Senior Law Project next Thursday, Jan. 7, from 9:30 a.m. to noon. For a free 30-minute consultation with a local attorney, contact the center.

Obituaries

Daniel Bernhardt

Funeral services for Daniel D. Bernhardt were held Saturday, Dec. 26, in the chapel of Sandy Funeral Home. Interment was at the Sandy Ridge Cemetery.

He was born in Portland on Dec. 18, 1954. He died Dec. 22 from injuries sustained in an accident. He was 27.

His family moved to the Gresham area where he completed his elementary education and was active in Little League baseball. He attended high school in Gresham and Sandy. His family moved to the Sandy area in 1971.

He had been employed in the nursery business and at Precision Cast Parts.

He is survived by his parents, Edward and Joann Bernhardt of Sandy; a sister, Kay Bernhardt of Sandy; two brothers, Terry and Dennis Bernhardt, both of Sandy; grandparents, Helena McDermid of Sandy and Mr. and Mrs. William Bernhardt of Boring, and his great-grandmother, Mae McDermid in Kansas.

Frieda Johnston

Services for Frieda Johnston, a Boring resident for more than 64 years, were held Tuesday in the chapel of Sandy Funeral Home. Vault interment was at Forest Lawn Memorial Park in Gresham.

Mrs. Johnston died in Portland Dec. 25. She was 85.

She was born Frieda Katherine Schweitzer in Chicago, Ill., on Feb. 22, 1896. Her family moved to Oklahoma for a short time before moving to Oregon when she was 15.

She married Albert Johnston on March, 22, 1917 in Oregon City. They made their home at Boring where they raised four children. Mr. Johnston died in 1976.

Mrs. Johnston was a member of the Sandy Senior Citizens and enjoyed outdoor projects like flowers and gardening.

Survivors include her children, Gertrude Schwab of Boring, Maxine Case of Sandy, Herman Johnston in California and Clifford Johnston in Oklahoma; a cousin, Carl Schweitzer; 10 grandchildren, and 19 great-grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Mt. Hood Hospice in her memory.

Harriett Kuchta

Funeral services for Harriett L. Kuchta of Sandy were held Monday at Bateman Funeral Chapel in Gresham.

Mrs. Kuchta died Dec. 22 from injuries suffered in an auto accident. She was 52.

Born in Portland, she attended Sandy High School. She was subsequently employed as a waitress on a cruise ship in the South Pacific. She later returned to the Portland area and was owner-operator of various restaurants in Multnomah County and the Mt. Hood area. She is survived by her parents, Bill and Ruth Fulton of Sandy; daughters, Susan Bolzell and Debbie Viskov, both of Portland, and Jana Kuchta of Sandy; a brother, Donald Fulton of Aurora, Ill., and four grandchildren.

Private interment was at Lincoln Memorial Park in Portland.

Ralph Stone

Services were held today at Bateman Funeral Chapel for Ralph R. Stone, Sandy, who died Monday in a Portland hospital.

Stone, 53, had lived in the Gresham-Sandy area all his life.

He was born in Milwaukee, Dec. 19, 1928, and attended Orient Grade School and Gresham High School. He married Betty Jean Paul in Gresham on Sept. 11, 1953.

Stone was a member of the Sandy Masonic Lodge 158 and the Sandy Veterans of Foreign Wars. He served on the Cottrell School District Board for two terms and was an avid hunter and fisherman.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Wayne of Sandy and Michael of Gresham; two daughters, Sharon Dodge of Gresham, and Linda Solso of Sandy. Four grandchildren and his brother, Kenneth, also survive.

Burial was at Cliffside Cemetery in Sandy.

George Kiesecker

George Earl Kiesecker, a lifelong resident of Sandy, died Monday in a Portland hospital at the age of 66.

Services were held today at Carroll Funeral Home in Gresham followed by interment at Willamette National Cemetery.

Kiesecker, who was born in Sandy Feb. 12, 1915, grew up and attended schools here. He worked in the area most of his life as a woodsman and a logger. He served in the U.S. Army in 1943.

He is survived by six sisters. They are: Ruby Downs, Portland; Velma Settlemier, Manteca, Calif.; Laura Simmons, Redland; Opal Schriver, Cudahy, Calif.; Olline Brown, Corvallis; and Grace Nicoles, Spokane, Wash.

Car theft nets charges

Three Sandy area juveniles were arrested Saturday by local police and charged in the theft of a pickup truck from Portland.

The three juveniles, ages 15 and 16, were arrested with a fourth juvenile from Portland and charged with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle. The two males were also charged with first-degree theft by receiving.

They were turned over to the custody of their parents.
