Library notes

World of friendship explored

The subtle processes of friendship—how it begins, deepens, is nourished, changes and sometimes ends—is explored in "The Art of Friendship" by Christine Leefeldt and Ernest Callenbach.

The authors of this collaborative effort have written the book on the premise that friendship is a crucial factor in our emotional health and that while we may occasionally wonder if our friendships are as deep and rewarding as they might be, we seldom reflect on them in any focused or systematic way.

Readers will recognize something of their own experiences with the various types of friendships that are explored. Throughout, the authors offer sound and useful advice on all types of friendships and on resolving the conflicts that can place limitations on our relationships with others. Other new books at Sandy Public Library include "Managing Your Emotions" by Erwin Lutzer, "Yours If You Ask," poems by Susan P. Schutz, and

"Maximum Range" by John Reese. New juvenile records and cassettes include "Snoopy vs. the Red Baron," "Star Wars," "The Spooky Old Tree" and "Green Eggs and Ham."
