It was a lucky day for Sandy resident Kenneth Caudell, far right, last Thursday as he was presented two round-trip tickets to Hawaii from Oregon Trail Savings and Loan. From left are Joe Brown, vice president of the savings division; Doug Walker, Walker Travel Service; Robert Lofgren, Sandy branch manager, and Caudell.

Sandy man wins Hawaiian trip

A Sandy man can thank the teller at Oregon Trail Savings and Loan who talked him into entering the firm's drawing for a trip to Hawaii.

Kenneth Caudell's name was chosen from among 23,400 entries statewide for the vacation for two that will include seven nights at the Princess Kaiulani Sheraton Hotel in Honolulu, a Paradise Cove Luau, a tour of the island and a Pearl Harbor cruise, as well as two round-trip airline tickets, arranged by Walker Travel Service of Gresham.

Caudell, who said he spent two or three hours in Hawaii on his way to Korea, is a longtime customer of the Sandy branch, according to Joe Brown, vice president of the savings division.

Caudell, who works in the logging industry, said a teller at the local branch talked him into entering the contest. Besides some time to spend away from the Oregon cold, Caudell will be able to visit his brother who lives in Hawaii whom, he said, he hasn't seen in quite awhile.

Shop caters to wood, glass hobbyists

Joan and Dennis Wright of Dover have opened a new wood and glass shop for supplies and retail sales just west of Oja Lumber on Highway 26 in Sandy.

A former bricklayer at Reynolds, Dennis crafts wood toys, unique accent furniture and wall hangings. Wife Joan, with 10 years experience in stained glass work, sells mirrors and tiffany lamps. She also teaches classes evenings and weekdays.

In addition to their own hand-made items on sale, the couple will sell stained glass supplies and open their shop to craftsmen and artisans to work and display their work.

The Wrights got the idea to go into business here after success displaying their goods at Portland's Saturday Market this past year.

Some of Dennis Wright's wooden toys prove fascinating to grandfathers as much as children, he said. These include functional gadgets like cranes.

The new Wood 'n' Glass shop also offers repair work on stained glass windows and tiffany lamps.

Much of Joan Wright's stained glass commercial work the last five years has gone into homes in Lake Oswego and Tualatin. She's also shipped stained glass items to Wisconsin and California.

Hours of the new Sandy Wood 'n' Glass shop are 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. weekdays, 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Saturday and n. n. until 4 p.m. Sunday.

Senior Center News:

Companion program aids elderly

The Sandy Senior Center is seeking persons over 60 years of age who may be interested in participating in a new program.

Senior Companions, sponsored by the Clackamas Community College Aging Programs Department, serve the homebound and frail elderly.

Senior Companions do friendly visitations, assist with bill payments, letter writing, information, referrals and grocery shopping. Interested persons must be low-income and willing to attend a three-day training session. This is a limited employment program.

The Golden Age Club sponsors a potluck at noon today for area seniors. An organizational meeting will follow at approximately 1 p.m.

Sandy Fire Marshal Jim Gallagher will be the center's guest speaker tomorrow, Jan. 29. He will discuss safety practices for center participants. A fire escape plan for the facility will also be reviewed.

Chalmers Thornber, Sandy area VITA volunteer, will be available to assist persons with federal and state income tax returns, as well as filing for the Homeowners and Renters Relief Program, beginning Feb. 3 on a weekly basis.

Appointments are available by calling the center at 668-5569. The service is free.

Persons who want to fight the winter blahs are invited to attend a Portland Winter Hawks hockey game at Portland Memorial Coliseum next Wednesday, Feb. 3. Cost of the trip, including ticket and transportation, is $5.

GED classes assist students

Classes are underway at Sandy Union High school for persons interested in obtaining a General Equivalency Diploma.

The GED course offers individual tutoring to help students meet requirements needed to receive a high school equivalency certificate.

The course is also open to adults who wish to upgrade their basic skills for better employment or self-improvement.

The classes are free of charge and students may enter the course at any time during the term, although early enrollment is encouraged.

For more information, call Mt. Hood Community College, 667-7366, or Kathleen Brugnoli, 668-7338.

Retirement. Are you ready for yours?

A comfortable retirement isn't something to hope for. It's something to plan for. Today. That's why IBS is ready to help you with a new Individual Retirement Account program beginning January 1, 1982.

At that time, IRAs will be available to all wage earners, even if you already have a pension plan.

The new IRA. It's good for you. What you want to contribute to your retirement is up to you. An IBS plan can start as low as $50 per month. By law, a single person will be allowed to deposit up to $2,000 a year; a working couple can set aside $4,000 and $2,250 a year is allowed for couples with a non-working spouse. And best of all, you don't pay federal taxes on the money deposited in your IRA. Federal tax on the interest is paid only on the amount withdrawn each year of your retirement.

A retirement plan you can depend on. IBS is offering a fixed rate IRA at 12% interest for 30 months. This interest rate is comparable to variable rate plans and gives you the added security of a guaranteed interest rate on your money.

Keogh plans are also available for IBS customers who are self-employed.

Plan for your tomorrow... today. Now is the time to start planning your retirement. No matter what your age is. And at IBS we're ready to help.

We'll be glad to explain all the different IRA options to you and help you decide what is best for your future.

Stop in today and be ready for tomorrow.
